174th Annual Convention

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA
MONDAY, MAY 5, 1958, 4:00 P.M.

The One Hundred Seventy-fourth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in The Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled at The Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, on Monday, May 5, 1958, at 4:00 P.M., in accordance with the Constitution and the Resolution of the last Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese called the Convention to order and opened the session with prayer.

A Quorum being present the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Long was duly elected Secretary and the Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. William Roulston McKean, chairman, presented the Report of The Committee on the Dispatch of Business which on Motion was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5:30 P.M. on Tuesday, May 6, 1958, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7:45 P.M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 7, 1958, at 9:00 A.M.

The Rev. Howard A. Hopkins presented the Report of the Committee on Arrangements which was adopted.

Seats have been found for all Deputies. However, due to an influx of new Parishes and Mission, there is overcrowding in several instances. If you are unable to find space in the seat assigned to you, you are at liberty to take the nearest available seat. Please remember that only authorized Deputies are entitled to seats in the Convention floor. All others must sit in the gallery.

A public address system has been installed and microphones have been placed in the three aisles for use of the Deputies. Please use the nearest microphone when speaking to the Convention.

A buffet luncheon will be served to all Deputies holding tickets at 1 P.M. Tuesday in Trinity Memorial Church, 22nd and Spruce Streets. May we remind you again that every year many tickets are requested and not used, and the Diocese sustains a loss of $2.36 for each of these tickets. Please do not order any tickets if they are not going to be used. If you have tickets that are not going to be used,please return them either to Dr. Long's office or to me.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates For Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Executive Council and the Executive Officer of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

On motion it was adopted.

The Secretary further reported that the resolution on the Proposed Revised Parochial Report was presented to the Provincial Synod at the Fall Meeting, October 15th and 16th, 1957 and received but referred to the Committee of the General Convention on Parochial Reports.

The Secretary further reported that the resolution on the matter of the retired clergymen continuing in special work after the age of 72 was referred to a Joint Committee of the General Convention on Pensions. The Committee was not favorable to the request.

During the past year the Secretary has fulfilled as far as possible his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons.

On December 22, 1957, the Parochial Reports were mailed and on February 1, 1958, when these reports were due only 87 of the 204 had been received. The Secretary would again stress the importance of making full returns on the Parochial Reports of the Diocese which facts are needed for the General Convention.

That on May 5, 1958, Parishes, Missions and Chapels of the Diocese entitled to membership in this Convention have not qualified as follows:

Of the 162 Parishes the following has not sent in the Certificate for Lay Deputies and therefore it has no Lay Deputies in Convention

St. Luke's, Kensington

Reports of the various Convention Committees were called for.

No report from the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Rev. James M. Niblo, D.D. reported for the Committee on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions (Appendix M, Page 260) and presented the following resolutions which on motion were adopted.

RESOLVED: That the Resolution of Convention of 1955 on Clerical Salaries be changed in B. 1. and B. 2. and have added at the end of both paragraphs the words "which sum shall be continued until 21 years of age, where the child is still dependent upon the parents for support."

RESOLVED, that the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess for the Sustentation Fund for the year 1959, the sum of $5,000.00.

The Secretary reported that The Rev. Dr. Niblo is resigning as a member of this Committee. The following resolution of appreciation was presented by the Rev. Dr. Stanley West:

RESOLVED, that the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, having learned that the Rev. Dr. James M. Niblo has decided to retire from this Commission and as its Chairman at the forth-coming Diocesan Convention, desires to place upon the records an expression of their heartfelt appreciation and deepest gratitude for the faithful and devoted services he has rendered to the clergy and parishes of the Diocese in this vitally important field.

He has been a member of the Commission for 24 years and its Chairman for 15 years. During this long period he has been most faithful in attendance at the meetings, and meticulous in the formation of its plans and the effective carrying-out of the same. Whereby, the two responsibilities of the Commission have been faithfully performed: First, supplementing the stipends of the Clergy, when parishes have been unable to pay the minimum salary, to the end that those salaries should always equal the minimum; Secondly, making sure that the pensions of all the Clergy of the Diocese shall be paid promptly to the Church Pension Fund, and, when necessary, providing unpaid balances, so that through all these years the Diocese's credit with the Fund has been unimpaired.

It is interesting to note that whereas when Dr. Niblo first became Chairman of this Commission there were 18 aided Parishes, there remain at this Convention of 1958 only two.

The Members of the Commission will greatly miss Dr. Niblo at their meetings and they pray for him every blessing in his retirement.

On motion the resolution was approved and the Rev. Dr. Niblo was given a standing vote of thanks for his many years of faithful service.

WHEREAS, the JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS is presenting a unanimous report to General Convention in October 1958; and

WHEREAS, the JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS in its Report states that it does not now recommend full intercommunion with the Church of South India, and that its resolutions are necessarily interim measures;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocese of Pennsylvania at this Convention in May 1958 expresses its desire that in the course of time the Anglican Communion will be able to enter into the fullest possible fellowship with the Church of South India when completely consistent with our Anglican Principles and the faith and order of the Universal Church as received and practiced in our Communion; and of the Church of South India and the clergy of that church shall be deferred until the end of 30-year interim or until the Constitution of the Church of the South India shall have been satisfactorily amended.

After considerable debate, a vote on the substitute was called for and the Substitute resolution was defeated. A vote was then called for on the original resolution and it was adopted.

WHEREAS, THE JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS has carefully studied the Church of South India with the assistance of the delegation sent to South India and of a special theological advisory committee; and

WHEREAS, the JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS is presenting a unanimous report to General Convention in October 1958; and

WHEREAS, the JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS in its Report clearly states that it does not now recommend full intercommunion with the Church of South India, and that its resolutions are necessarily interim measures;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocese of Pennsylvania at this Convention in May 1958 expresses its approval of the REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS ON THE CHURCH OF SOUTH INDIA; and also expresses its desire to enter into the fullest possible fellowship with the Church of South India consistent with our Anglican principles and the Faith and Order of the Universal Church as received and practiced in our Communion.

There being no choice for the layman on the Standing Committee, the Rev. W. Roulston McKean moved that under authority of Canon IV the Standing Committee be authorized to fill the vacancy. This was adopted.

There being no choice among nominees for the Executive Council, the Rev. W. This was voted upon and approved by the Convention.

FOR THE DEPARTED

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, and may light perpetual shine upon them.

Amen.

FOR LOVED ONES DEPARTED

O King of Paradise, where light abounds and life reigns, give to our dear ones who are with thee a full share of thy treasures, that they may always be white with thy purity, tranquil with thy peace, and glad with thy joy. Let us live vividly in their present love as they live in ours, until the time of separation is past, and we are taken to the place whither they have gone before, there to dwell with them in the perfect fellowship that knows no end.

PRAYER FOR THE ANGLICAN COMMUNION

Almighty God, Who by Thy Holy Spirit has established Thy Church throughout the world; Grant, we beseech Thee, that all who share the Faith, Worship, and Fellowship of the Anglican Communion may be drawn ever closer to Thee and to one another in unity of purpose and in the bond of love, that with one heart we may desire the prosperity of Thy Holy Apostolic Church, and with one voice proclaim the Faith once delivered to the Saints. Grant strength and wisdom to the clergy, and enlighten and sustain all thy faithful people therein, that with adventurous zeal, they may labor abundantly for the salvation of all men and the upbuilding of Thy Kingdom; through Jesus Christ, our Lord; to Whom with Thee and they Holy Ghost be all honor and glory, now and forevermore. Amen.

The Diocese suffered a great loss in the death of Mr. William H. DuBarry, former Secretary of the Standing Committee. Mr. DuBarry had been a member of the Standing Committee since 1935 and was, for many years, its Secretary. He will be greatly missed.

In the death of Mr. Clarence M. Brown, the diocese lost a most devoted and able layman. Mr. Brown not only rendered magnificent service as one of the Trustees of The Church Foundation since 1944, but, at the same time, he assumed the Chairmanship of the Committee for the Endowment of the Episcopate. It is interesting to note that after over 150 years history of this diocese, the Endowment of the Episcopate amounted to less than $100,000, but under Mr. Brown's able leadership and his many generous personal gifts to the Fund, including a $100,000 bequest in his Will, the market value of the Fund is now in excess of $700,000. Mr. Brown had set a goal for the Fund of one and a half million dollars, which is small considering the size of this diocese. A similar fund in the Diocese of Tennessee (which is much smaller than this diocese) is almost $3,000,000.

The Rev. Charles E. Tuke, D.D. has resigned as a member of the Board of Examining Chaplains. Dr. Tuke has served for 34 years as an Examining Chaplain, part of this time as Chairman of the Board. He is now living in retirement in Lansdowne and is unable to continue his services as an Examining Chaplain. I want to record my personal appreciation as well as that of the Diocese for Dr. Tuke's splendid service.

The Very Rev. Frank D. Gifford, Ph.D., Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School, is leaving the School at the end of this year. Dean Gifford came to the Philadelphia Divinity School in 1946 and, due to his vigorous and excellent leadership, the School has grown in strength from year to year. Dean Gifford reaches the retiring age in June 1959 and, in view of his very splendid work at the School, the Board of Trustees have voted him a year's sabbatical leave beginning July 1st. Dean Gifford plans to live near New York and continue his writing and preaching. He will leave the School with the gratitude of the Trustees, the Alumni and the students.

One of the happy experience in the Diocese since our last Convention was the Clergy Conference at Buck Hill Falls. We owe a great debt of gratitude to Dr. Mollegen and Dr. Stinnette, our two leaders. Our two days together gave us the opportunity to get to know one another better. We were happy to have several of our Directors of Religious Education with us at the Conference.

One of the clergy wrote, "It was helpful to receive confirmation concerning the manner in which we attempt to communicate the Gospel. Some of the things we have been doing are confirmed by the experts as being good and wholesome. There are times when we are more than a little uncertain about phases of our ministry. When the experts indicate that our way has after all been a good way, it helps to encourage us. It was a wonderful experience to be taken up into a Mount of Transfiguration, such as the Buck Hill Falls Conference proved to be. It is also good to come down to the valley and, in the midst of a great city's industrial enterprise, minister to those who live and work and have their being 'where cross the crowded ways of life; where sound the cries of race and clan.' "

The Lambeth Conference normally meets once in ten years at the call of the Archbishop of Canterbury. Invitations are extended to all bishops holding jurisdictions in all of the member Churches of the world-wide Anglican Communion. By virtue of his occupying the ancient See of Canterbury, the Archbishop presides at the sessions. The conference gets its name from the Archbishop of Canterbury's ancient residence in London, Lambeth Palace, in whose library these meetings of the bishops have been held for the past century.

The opening session of the approaching Lambeth Conference will be held in Canterbury Cathedral. Here, in the ancient Cathedral where Christian worship has been held continuously since the third century—the scene of the martyrdom of Thomas Beckett—more than 300 Anglican bishops will gather to hear the Archbishop's opening address which he will deliver while seated in the Chair of Augustine, the first Archbishop of Canterbury.

There will be present at this service bishops from every continent, of every race, of all tongues, bearing witness to the Catholicity of the Anglican Communion. The Bishops will then return to London where for six weeks in closed sessions at Lambeth they will work continuously to prepare "the course" of the strategy of Anglicanism for the decade to come.

Although the findings and pronouncements of Lambeth are not legislatively binding on the autonomous branches of the Anglican Communion, they carry tremendous weight in all councils of the member churches.

I have been assigned to the Committee on the Prayer Book Revision. I am looking forward to this experience because in discussing the Revision of the Prayer Book, it will enable me to get an insight into the developments that are taking place throughout the Anglican Communion.

The Standing Committee has requested me to clarify the meaning of the Perpetual Diaconate. The Canon permitting men to be ordered Perpetual Deacons was passed by the General Convention in 1952. The Canon clearly sates "A Deacon ordained under the provision of this section shall exercise his Ministry as Assistant in any parish to which, at the request or with the consent of the Rector and Vestry, he may be assigned by the Ecclesiastical Authority." Men should not be recommended for the Perpetual Diaconate unless the Vestry wants them to serve in their parish. A man is not ordained a Perpetual Deacon to roam at will over the Diocese. He can, of course, render service outside of his parish at the request of the Bishop.

We have had seveneteen men ordered Deacons under this Canon in this Diocese, one of whom completed the further studies required and was ordained to the Priesthood.

At the meeting of the House of Bishops last September, a number of Bishops spoke vigorously against the Perpetual Diaconate and thought that it might be used as a "back door" entrance to the Priesthood. It was generally agreed that any Perpetual Deacon desiring to be advanced to the Priesthood should spend at least one full year in a Divinity School. This seems to me to be a reasonable and wise regulation. The utmost care must be exercised by Rectors and Vestries in recommending men for ordination as Perpetual Deacons and the Bishop likewise should be exceedingly careful in accepting them.

The Perpetual Diaconate was designed to give the priest assistance in the administration of the Holy Communion. For a long time many felt that this very real need could be met by allowing lay-readers to administer the chalice under special authorization by the Bishop. I still think that this was the most desirable way to meet the need, but the laymen always voted overwhelmingly against such a proposal. I feel that the Perepetual Deacons have rendered valuable service in this Diocese and that their service should be continued.

On every side we are reminded that our civilization hangs by a thread. We do not know what may happen to our world in the next few years. At such a time and under such circumstances, it is a thrilling thing to meet here in Convention and take counsel together how we can extend and develop the work of your Diocese. Obviously your Diocese faces a tremendous opportunity, the like of which will not occur again in our lifetime. Think of the new churches that have been built in the past few years. Think of the parish houses built or under construction now. Think of the new Missions which we ought to start as soon as the money is available with which to purchase the proper sites. We need to act boldly and sacrificially for the sake of the oncoming generations. You and I enjoy in this Diocese the results of the hard work and sacrificial giving of our forefathers. Will future generations have good reason to feel grateful for what we are doing now?

The question is often asked why we keep in the Creed the statement, "He descended into hell." In the Proposed Prayer Book of 1786 this phrase was omitted, since, according to Bishop White, the clause was not an original part of the Creed and furthermore its meaning was commonly misunderstood. Preaching on this subject recently one of our clergy has stated that this clause in the creed reflects the Christian's concern, not only for those who were now among the departed, but also for all future generations. This clergyman thought that our generation does not think as it should concerning those who will come after us; that the nearest that many people come to showing any concern for them is to declare, "We are not going to bring children into such a world as this." This clergyman went on to say, "Our forefathers had learned something about that love which Jesus had taught them and, because they understood that the 'brethren' included all men, not only those alive at the moment but those who are now among the departed and those who would come in the future, it seemed to the Christians of those first centuries very important to remember and to record what Christ did and the proof of their abounding charity is found in their insertion of that clause 'He descended into hell' into the declaration of their Christian faith."

A simple Gospel truth is that we must learn to live in charity toward those who have gone before and those who will come after us. For those who will come after us, we must plan wisely and labor unreservedly so that they may inherit a better diocese than we now possess.

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves is Chairman of a Committee in charge of plans for the celebration of the 175th Anniversary of the Diocese in 1959.

The best way in which we can prepare to celebrate the 175th Anniversary of this diocese is to get a far clearer vision of the principles upon which we are going to act, for which we are prepared to sacrifice life itself if need be. Nuclear weapons will not save us. Our industrial strength will not of itself make survival worth having. The part to be played by the Christian Church is both central and vital. We need and shall always need an orientation of life from self to God in the fellowship of His Church.

If we, in this diocese, are to play a worthy part as a section of Christ's Church, our work must be rooted and grounded in prayer. Give me a congregation on its knees, and I will show you a parish which is becoming a more and more radiant center of Christ's power. As you pray, new openings develop by which lapsed members can be brought back into active participation in the Church's life and worship, and those outside of any church can be brought into its fellowship.

Our witness must be the outcome of our personal knowledge of the reality and power of the living Christ. Unless we have strong convictions about the necessity of being a member of Christ's Church, we will not spend our time, effort or thought on extending the Church's life and worship. We never make great sacrifices for our uncertainties. Strong convictions will enable us to overcome our laziness and indifference and to become effective workers.

I would emphasize again that we are at our best and most complete selves in a Christ-centered fellowship. The truth that has power to save our world from destruction is that human life finds its fulfilment in free communion between God and man and mutual responsibility between man and man. We must be concerned, therefore, with something far more than getting people to regard Christianity as an ethical system from which they may take as much as suits their purpose. We must rest content with nothing less than getting everyone to be active, practicing worshipping members of the Church. We must think more highly of the Church than we do. No one is a Christian, in the fullest sense of the word, unless he is a member of the Fellowship.

Finally, this determined effort to have everyone be an active member of the Church must be a normal part of the life and activity of every parish, of every Vestry meeting, of every meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary or any other organization. This determined effort must come from the very heart of the Church itself.

As Charles Hoyt has expressed it:

FOR THE CHURCH

Is this the time, O Church of Christ, to sound
Retreat? To arm with weapons cheap and blunt
The men and women who have borne the brunt
Of truth's fierce strife, and nobly held their ground?
Is this the time to halt, when all around
Horizons lift, new destinies confront,
Stern duties wait our church, never wont
To play the laggard, when God's will was found?
No, rather strengthen stakes and lengthen cords,
Enlarge thy plans and gifts, O thou elect,
And to thy kingdom come for such a time!
The earth with all its fullness is the Lord's.
Great things attempt for Christ, great things expect,
Whose love imperial is, whose power sublime.

The Standing Committee in accordance with Diocesan Canon XII gave its consent to

(1) St. Thomas Church, West Philadelphia, to place a mortgage of $95,000 upon its property at 52nd and Parrish Streets, in order to complete the remaining half of its Church building.

(2) St. Philip-in-the-Fields, Oreland, to borrow $5,000 from St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Chestnut Hill, to assist in the conversion of the present Parish House and/or Church basement.

(3) Christ Church, Ridley Park, to place a mortgage of $20,000 upon its property to assist in building Parish House.

(4) St. Paul's Church, Chester, to convey to the City of Chester the old burial ground located at the Corner of Third and Welsh Streets, Chester.

Consideration was given during the course of the year to the disposition of the property at 9320 Germantown Avenue, Chestnut Hill, which had been left to the Diocese by the late Mrs. Bruce Ford. The Bishop advised the Special Committee composed of Messrs. Lee, Drayton and Rhoads, that the use of the property for Diocesan purposes, as a house for the Bishop or otherwise, was impracticable. After rejecting lower offers the Standing Committee approved the sale of the property for $85,000.

Under the sponsorship of the Standing Committee, a luncheon was held at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, on October 17 following a Communion service in the Church in commemoration of the Bishop's Fifteenth Anniversary. Members of the Clergy and lay members of the Diocese contributed $6870 for the Bishop and Mrs. Hart's trip to the Lambeth Conference. It was subsequently recommended that all Diocesan budgets provide that an amount equal to one-tenth of the estimated expenses of the Bishop's trip to the Lambeth Conference be set aside annually.

The Bishop requested the advice of the Standing Committee to the establishment of a Mission at Goshenville by the Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli.

The Bishop having given his approval, the applications for the organization as Parishes of St. Martin's Chapel, Ithan, and of the Mission of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Essington, were approved.

The Standing Committee considered several applications for ordination to the Perpetual Diaconate which were refused. It was felt that certain Candidates had not been properly advised in undertaking their course of study. Further there seems to be a misunderstanding that the Perpetual Diaconate can be a step toward ordination as a Priest. The Bishop was requested to clarify the meaning of the Perpetual Diaconate in his address to the Convention.

William H. DuBarry after many years of faithful service resigned as Secretary of the Standing Committee prior to the organization meeting in May 1957. Mr. DuBarry died on February 6, 1958, and the following resolution was adopted by the Standing Committee:

> By the sudden death, on February 6, 1958, of William H. DuBarry, formerly Secretary of the Standing Committee, the Diocese of Pennsylvania suffered a great loss. He served his church well and did not count the cost. He did an efficient work and showed much wisdom and understanding in the problems that came before the Standing Committee. He became a member of the Standing Committee in 1935 and in 1936 he was elected Secretary, which office he held until 1957. He expressed many times his appreciation of the honor bestowed upon him in being elected Secretary. His Christian conduct was the result of that firm conviction that creed and conduct go hand in hand in creating character. Doctor DuBarry will be missed. May he rest in peace and light perpetual shine upon him.
> "There is sprung up a light for the righteous: and joyful gladness for such as are true hearted."

Respectfully submitted,

TOWNSEND MUNSON, Secretary

APPENDIX G

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA FOR 1957

The report of the treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is submitted herewith. The figures are in greater detail than the audit prepared from the diocesan books of account and records by Charles S. Rockey & Co., a copy of which will be available for examination at the Church House.

The year 1957 was notable in the support given to diocesan activities by the churches and missions. Only two parishes failed to pay their assessments. In round numbers, against an accepted proportionate share in the missionary budget of $542,000, we received $552,000. The record shows 77 parishes and missions paid in full, 102 overpaid by $17,350, and 13 owed a balance of $7,300 at year end. Since the books were closed, approximately $1,100 has been received against 1957 unpaid proportionate shares.

The Diocesan Campaign for Capital Funds remitted $131,383.97 to the diocese for use in its forward work. From this sum, the final balance of the $40,000 advance to St. Thomas, West Philadelphia, was liquidated, after receipt of $2,000 from the church itself. Other loan repayments worthy of mention are: $1,000 from Atonement, Morton, against an advance of $3,000; it is anticipated that the entire sum will be repaid by 1959. St. Andrews, Somerton, has returned $2,500 more against the grant of $25,000 from the Diocesan Advancement Fund; its total repayments now reach $10,000, an example of which they may well be proud. St. Paul, Levittown, has sent us $5,000 against its building pledges.

The missionary program in the diocese was carried forward by appropriations authorized to be made from Diocesan Campaign for Capital Funds, as follows:

Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills	$20,500
Purchase of land, Southampton	21,500
Purchase of land, King of Prussia	21,000
Plans for St. Anne's, Willow Grove	2,000 and from diocesan missionary funds, $2,000 was appropriated for plans for St. Paul, Levittown, and $56,100 additional for Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills.
	$65,000

These major steps toward meeting our obligations result from the loyal financial support given the diocese by the devoted and sacrificial efforts of clergy and laity. With continued backing such as this, we will march forward.

Few understand the volume of work required to collect, account and disburse the considerable sums which pass through the bookkeeping departments. We here record our appreciation to all those on the staff at the Church House who contribute to this effort.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON, Treasurer

EDWARD M. MANN, Ass't Treasurer

The Department of Finance met bi-monthly except during the summer of 1957 and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Department of Property is a sub-department under Finance. The Report is separate.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, Mr. Donald A. Williams, Chairman, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, meets at the call of the Chair.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese and its Expectation to the National Council for 1957 have been paid in full. The Diocese had accepted the assigned by the National Council.

The Treasurer's Report is most gratifying showing the breakdown of the "Givings." Mr. Drayton, Treasurer, and Mr. Mann, Assistant Treasurer, give personal interest to the Finance of the Diocese and are helpful in the discussions which take place at the meetings of the Department.

The Chairman expresses his appreciation to the officers of the Diocese and the members of the Department for their splendid cooperation during the past year.

REPORT OF THE PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

Church of the Advocate—When it became apparent that major repairs to the plant were necessary we assisted the Vicar in obtaining the names of various firms to do the work.

King of Prussia—During the year numerous visits were made to this area and meetings attended to try to select the most advantageous location for a church. No decision had been reached by the end of the year 1957.

Redemption, Southampton—We have purchased 4 acres of land for a church. Plans have been approved by the Diocese and a building committee, and bids were asked for. A rectory has been purchased to be used for the present.
Oxford Area—A site for a new Mission, on the Lancaster Road, Oxford, has been purchased.

St. Philips, New Hope—We met with a committee of laymen several times and visited the present Chapel with one of our Architects who drew preliminary sketches for a parish house and/or rectory. While awaiting approval of this project Bishop Hart has approved the purchase of a rectory nearby.

Trinity, Gulph Mills—We assisted in the preliminary arrangements for the building of the new church and have inspected the building several times. It was under roof by the end of December.

Our Committee of Architects have approved plans for Levittown, Southampton, New Hope, Gulph Mills and the Mission at Hilltown during the year.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

The Department of Missions has participated in a river-to-river survey of South Philadelphia. Studies are continually made through Department of Research and Planning of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches in regard to population shifts, new developments and significant City Planning.

The Convocations are taking an ever increased interest in the physical condition of Vicarages and property committees are inspecting both Missions and Vicarages annually.

There has been considerable concern about the King of Prussia area after it was announced that Cabot, Cabot and Forbes had bought a large tract to be used for an industrial park. This tract adjoined the property that we were considering. We are now re-studying the situation.

After several meetings with the Committee at Trinity, Gulph Mills, satisfactory plans for the completion of the new Church and financing of it have been completed. I would like to take this opportunity to express my personal appreciation for the time, skill, interest and dedication of Mr. Ronald J. McCarthy, Chairman of Property Committee. His wisdom and patience, quietly giving of himself behind the scenes, make it possible for the Department of Missions to do its work more effectively.

Received applications from St. Peter's Mission, Broomall, St. Andrew's-in-the-Field, Somerton and St. Philip-in-the-Field, Oreland for parish status. Approved. Request received from St. Andrew's, West Vincent to be restored as a parish and revise its charter. Approved.

St. Paul's, Chester, requested that the Bishop accept St. Luke's Chapel, Highland Gardens, as a Diocesan Mission and the Title and Assets to be placed with the Church Foundation (Diocese accepted St. Luke's as a Mission of the Diocese February 15, 1957) and the Rev. Richard Herschel was appointed Vicar as of June 8, 1957, after being ordained to the Diaconate.

A petition was received for organizing a mission at Southampton, which was duly signed by the Rev. Albert M. Holloway and approved by Bishop Hart and Dean Dietrich. The Property Committee was instructed to sign an agreement of sale between Michele Natale and wife, and the Church Foundation for land at Southampton (approximately 3½ acres). The Church of the Redemption, formerly of Philadelphia, has moved to Southampton. On November 4, 1957, an agreement of sale was executed for the purchase of a rectory, 912 Carlin Drive, Southampton, total price $16,700. Funds for the purchase of this property are being supplied from the Church of the Redemption Building Fund.

Approval was given to St. Paul's Levittown to engage an architect to develop plans and specifications not to exceed $2,000 for the proposed parish house. St. Paul's Mission, with permission of the Executive Council, had conducted a campaign for building a parish house and they raised $56,000 in cash and pledges, payable over a three-year period. The Diocese had allocated $300.00 to St. Paul's, Levittown for the settlement cost of 3 Pensive Lane Rectory.

The Department of Missions had received an application to raise money for building from St. Anne' Mission and was approved by the Executive Council. A Committee of three, Messrs. Chesterman, Coates and McCarthy made a survey of the needs of St. Anne's Mission, Willow Grove. The Mission conducted a campaign and has received $40,000 in pledges.

The Property Committee was given authorization to order plans, not to exceed $2,000, for a church edifice for Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills. Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, has given $2,500 towards the building of Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills. Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills had received an estimate of $160,000 on plans for the building but the plans were revised to a cost of $75,000 for the church building. Trinity Mission was given permission to use the $8,351.50 they have raised towards the completion of the Sanctuary.

The Convocation of Germantown reported that no action had been taken for the building of a parish house for St. Philip's Mission, New Hope.

St. Stephen's, Bridesburg, had taken the status of a mission on June 1, 1957, under the guidance of St. Mark's, Frankford. Mr. Chinn, Curate of St. Mark's, Frankford, will live in the rectory as priest-in-charge of St. Stephen's, Bridesburg. June 1, 1957 was placed on the Diocesan Missionary Budget and the Diocese has contributed $500 of the $1,000 needed for the repairs on the rectory.

The Department allocated $500.00 for the laying of a concrete floor in the undercroft of Christ Church, Eddington, to be used for a church school room.

Epiphany Mission, Royersford, asked permission, which was given, to borrow $5,000 for the repointing of the walls and resetting the loose and broken stone. The mission was not asking aid of the Diocese.

The Property Committee Chairman with Bishop Armstrong selected land approximately 4 acres, as a site for St. Christopher's Mission, Oxford, the cost to be $7,500.00.

The Rev. Matthew Davis, Vicar of St. Monica's Mission, presented a check for $1,800 being the payment in full for a loan made to the mission from the Bishop's Revolving Fund. St. Monica's Mission requested that it be relocated but no action was taken.

The missionaries' automobile allowance is to be increased as of January 1, 1958 from .06 to .08 cents per mile for the first 500 miles and .06 cents per mile over the 500 miles, per month.

Chairman

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

FOR THE YEAR 1957

Due to the splendid support and devoted work of the Vicars and their congregations two of our missions attained parish status during the year 1957.

St. Andrew's, West Vincent, applied for parish status at the 1957 Diocesan Convention and elected their former Vicar, the Rev. Kenneth Werner, as their Rector. We want to congratulate this parish on their achievement and know that they will continue to grow and be a spiritual influence in that section of Chester County in which this parish is located.

At the same Diocesan Convention St. Peter's, Broomall also achieved parish status and they elected their former Vicar, the Rev. Vernon Matthews, as their first Rector. They did a remarkable job in the last few years and with the steady growth of their community, we know that they, too, are facing a very bright future. We wish this new parish Godspeed in their work for the Kingdom in Broomall.

The over all picture of the missionary work in the Convocation is one of growth. It is the result of the zeal and devotion of our Vicars and their congregations.

Ascension, Parkesburg

The Rev. Mr. Breuninger who had been its Vicar left in the fall of the year and his place has been taken by the Rev. Henry Sharp. The steeple has been repaired and considerable work has been done to the Parish House facilities of this mission. The congregation is showing a great deal of enthusiasm and devotion and this mission has taken a new lease on life.

Ascension, West Chester

This mission, with its Vicar, Father Cecil H. Cowan, has improved the landscaping of the grounds. This mission has, during the past year, shown signs of marked interest in the work of the Episcopal Church and is now assuming a larger share of the Vicar's salary.

St. Andrew's, Belmont Hills

Mr. Hilsee finished his third year as lay reader in charge of St. Andrew's. The attendance at the Sunday service is gratifying and the enrollment of the Church School seems to justify the existence of this mission here in Belmont Hills. Any immediate growth, however, is not to be expected.

St. Cyril's, Coatesville

Also, under the Vicarship of Father Cowan. This mission has enjoyed a full year now in the charming church which replaced the old mission building. The congregation is doing their share towards the cost of this building and with increased attendance at the services and parish activities, they can look back on 1957 as a year of accomplishments.

St. James, Green Ridge

This mission is in a still growing community and is faced with the need of better parish house facilities. It is remarkable what this church has achieved since Dr. Reeves has been its Vicar. There are now 195 communicants, an increase of 72 in the two years of Dr. Reeves' incumbency, and 180 active families. Three years ago, the every member canvass produced $3,000. The following year it was $4,000; last year $7,000; and this year $12,000 is expected. The church seats 165 and has had Sundays when 255 were in attendance. The Church School is meeting in every available spot. Permission has been requested to conduct a capital funds campaign to enlarge their facilities. All in all, it is a mission with a sound future.

St. John's, Compass

One of our oldest missions, it had a good year in 1957 under the leadership of the Rev. Frederick A. Breuninger. No spectacular growth is to be expected in this farming community. Nevertheless, an excellent piece of work has been carried on here over the years. Mr. Breuninger left the mission to become Rector of St. Peter's-in-the-Great Valley and the Rev. Henry J. Sharp was appointed to succeed him in the Fall.

St. Mark's, Honey Brook

This was one of the four missions which received funds from the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation to put their buildings in good shape. The others were St. John's, Compass; St. Mary's, Warwick, and Ascension, Parkesburg. The Vicars and congregations have put this money to good use and the property is in excellent shape and the influence of this church is felt in a circumference of many miles. The Vicar, the Rev. Joseph H. Laird, has endeared himself to the people of this section of Chester County.

St. John's, Essington

This probably is one of the strongest of our missions in the Convocation, with the Church, Parish House and Rectory in excellent condition thru the untiring efforts of its Vicar, the Rev. Francis Blake. Both he and the congregation feel that St. John's might be in a position to ask for Parish status at the Diocesan Convention in 1958. We want to congratulate them on their excellent work, the zeal and devotion this congregation has displayed during the past years.

St. Luke's, Eddystone

The Rev. Richard Chapin, Vicar, reports a good year, and this mission has been able to increase steadily the amount contributed towards the Vicar's salary. This mission is still troubled, from time to time, with a termite condition. It is hoped, however, that with one more treatment the situation will be under control.

St. Mary's, Chester

After several years of faithful work on the part of Father Miller as its Vicar, he has accepted a position in the Diocese of Washington and Father Reginald H. Kent has been appointed in his place. This mission now is accepting a share in the salary of the new Vicar, the amount of which is to be stepped up from year to year. The Vicarage has been put in good shape and the Church building also is in excellent condition. The new organ has been paid for by the congregation and was dedicated last Spring.

St. Mary's, Warwick

This 151-year old mission also has Mr. Laird as its Vicar. Thanks to the help of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation and the members of the congregation, the property is in excellent shape and various improvements and renovations have been made. Due to its location there has not been any notable growth in this mission for some time. However, with the suburban sections of Philadelphia continually pushing outward, we feel that in due time this section will have more growth. We will then find this Church ready to minister to the people who will move to this section of the county.

St. Martin's, Marcus Hook

This is one of our aided parishes. The Rev. Herbert E. Rowe, its Vicar, has done a remarkable piece of working during the year and a half that he has been in charge. The response of the congregation has been very encouraging and they feel strong enough to seek parish status possibly at the 1958 Diocesan Convention. This indeed would be a wonderful day for this old parish, one of the first churches in our Diocese.

St. Christopher's, Oxford

Gradually this mission is taking on more shape. The services are still being conducted in the Oxford Research Club, but the Diocese has purchased a four-acre tract of land on the edge of the town limit on which land we hope some day to erect a suitable building for this newly formed mission. The Rev. Lewis Worrall, a Deacon, is in charge of this work and has been untiring in his efforts. With the help he is receiving from the devoted lay people, we feel that St. Christopher's is off to a good start.

All in all the missionary work of the Convocation has been quite active in 1957, but the work of the Dean has been a very pleasant and inspiring one.

The Woman's Auxiliary again has been a tremendous help and their President, Mrs. Paul Banks, and her Executive Committee has always been more than willing to assist the Dean wherever they can be of help. To them I wish to express my deepest appreciation.

I also would like to thank the members of the Executive Committee and in particular the chairmen of the various committees. Mr. Francis Austin, who has served for several years as Chairman of the Property Committee, had to resign because of pressing business matters. During the years that he served, he has been very liberal with his time and ability and a tremendous help. It was difficult to replace him, but Mr. William C. Pierson, who became Chairman of this Committee, has already shown his deep interest in the work. He has surrounded himself with a very active committee which systematically and very carefully is examining all mission properties.

My appreciation also to Mr. Freas B. Snyder, Chairman of our Reference Committee, who has been invaluable in helping us in making a study of the needs of St. James Church, Green Ridge. He has also been of great help in discussing and considering possible new sites for missions in the Convocation.

Mr. Hauser's term of office as Chairman of the New Sites Committee expired with the Spring meeting and I want to thank him for the work that he has done in heading this committee. He has now been replaced by the Rev. Alfred Vail, of Downingtown. Presently this Committee is quite active in studying the needs of our Convocation in the King of Prussia and High Meadows areas.

Our Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. John A. Eiseman, is a constant help in all matters pertaining to the work of the Convocation.

In closing, may I express also my appreciation for the work of the Rev. James Hodder and his committee in assisting the Dean with the programs of the Convocation.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR., Dean

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In April, 1958, the women of the Chester Convocation have completed their pledge of $4,000.00 and have had the privilege of sharing the necessary physical changes of the Church of the Ascension, Parkesburg, St. John's, Compass, St. Mark's, Honeybrook and St. Mary's, Warwick. An awakened and wide-spread interest has developed in these missions as a result of the "go see" trips and the informative reports from Dean Van der Hiel and our missionaries, the Rev. Joseph Laird and the Rev. Frederick Breuninger.

The Emergency Fund amounting to $1,000.00 raised during the last two years has done yeoman's service where repairs and needs created an emergency.

Our speakers at the Spring Meeting, held at the Church of the Holy Trinity, West Chester, in April, were Mrs. Victor Perrin and the Rev. Roland Foster of Manila, P. I. Our Fall Meeting was held in October at Trinity Church, Swarthmore. Our speakers were the Rev. Kenneth Anthony and Miss Elizabeth Beath, Associate Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council. Bishop Hart took time from his busy schedule to be with us at both meetings and gave us excellent talks.

In order to create more interest in the whole program of the church, area meetings have been held throughout the Convocation. A Quiet Day was held on January 23rd, at Trinity Church, Swarthmore. The Rev. W. F. Penny, rector of St. James Church, Prospect Hill, was the conductor.

It has been a great privilege to work with Dean Van der Hiel, the executive committee, and the women of the Convocation who have been most co-operative and helpful during my term of office. To Bishop Hart and Bishop Armstrong we are grateful for their interest and we are grateful to the clergy and parishes for their graciousness and hospitality in being our hosts.

As we have moved forward together in the last four years we have accomplished a number of our objectives, but we have additional and challenging tasks ahead in our own Convocation. We therefore seek God's guidance to discover our responsibilities as women of the Church.

Retiring President

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

Two joint meetings of the Convocation of Germantown with the Woman's Auxiliary were held in the Spring and Fall of 1957. The Spring meeting took place at the Church of the Resurrection, Mayfair. The Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese was the Celebrant at the Holy Communion. There then followed a business meeting, a lunch and a Go-See-Tour, which was only moderately well attended (it perhaps followed the previous one too closely), but it did offer opportunity for those who regrettably missed the first one.

The Fall meeting of the Convocation and the Woman's Auxiliary was held in the evening at St. Mark's Church, Frankford, with one of the largest attendances on record. The business meetings preceded dinner and a shortened form of Evening Prayer followed at which the Rt. Rev. John B. Bentley, D.D., Vice-President of National Council, was the Preacher. Bishop Hart addressed the gathering at dinner. The Convocation was afforded the privilege of hearing the new anniversary organ which had just been installed in St. Mark's prior to our meeting.

A comparison of the statistical report indicates continued growth and development in the Missions of this Convocation during 1957. In almost every particular increase is reported; larger Church Schools, better average attendance, larger offerings. The seven Missions reported a total of 134 Baptisms during the year and 153 presented to the Bishops for Confirmation. It will be noted that we are privileged to include in our Convocation Report two new Missions, St. Stephen's, Bridesburg, and the Church of the Redemption, Southampton, both being Parishes under Missionary Administration, which means that the Bishop of the Diocese is Rector of each. The former he has placed under the care of the Rector of St. Mark's Church, Frankford, and the latter under the supervision of the Dean, and has appointed as Vicars to actively carry on the work of the Missions the Rev. A. Edward Chinn and the Rev. James A. Trimble, respectively.

The relocation of the Church of the Redemption, originally at 56th and Market Streets, Philadelphia, to the new site in Southampton is an interesting piece of Diocesan missionary work. For various reasons, climaxed by a disastrous fire, the Wardens and Vestrymen petitioned the Bishop for permission to conclude the work of the Parish at this location. All the requirements of the Canons having been fulfilled, the property was then sold and the assets from sale, insurance, investments and memorials were transferred together with the title of the Church to the burgeoning new Mission at Southampton in Bucks County. A beautiful site of almost four acres, centrally located, has been purchased. Architect's plans have been drawn and approved for a Church with limited parish house facilities in the basement. Bids are now being presented and it is hoped that before long ground will be broken, the building erected, ready for occupancy in late 1958. Since the beginning of the Mission in December, 1956, Services have been held regularly in the Southampton Grade School under the direction of the Rector of Trinity Church, Oxford, and to date boasts 64 families with an average attendance at services of 121, a Church School numbering 94 with eleven teachers, seven have been baptized and twenty-one confirmed. A split-level house has been purchased as a temporary vicarage into which the new Vicar will move on or about June 1, 1958. Having a full time Vicar in residence will give added impetus to this growing Mission.

The efforts of the Rector of St. Mark's Church, Frankford, and the Vicar, also Curate at St. Mark's, have been tireless on behalf of St. Stephen's, Brideburg. The attack has been on many fronts but the greatest result has been the spiritual uplift given the people of this Parish by these two enthusiastic leaders. The congregation has come alive and is inspired. As a result, many improvements have been made to the physical property; cleaning, painting, polishing, tearing out, installing, plastering and papering have been the order of the day, yea of the months. A Servers Guild has been organized, 300 Prayer Books and Hymnals have been secured and a thorough Every Member Canvass conducted, which resulted in a total of 90 pledges for approximately $7,000, the average pledge being $77 per year. The new spirit at St. Stephen's is characterized by the sign ordered and installed at the corner of the property by the laymen "The Episcopal Church Welcomes You."

The line on the progress chart at St. Paul's, Levittown, continued its upward trend throughout 1957. All too seldom is progress a problem to the Church and yet St. Paul's has hardly known a time when it was not plagued by the question "Where will we put them?" The inability to accommodate attendance has always been a source of embarrassment with the Church in Levittown especially in the Church School, which now reports 535 on roll. When 80 or even 70% of this total appeared on a given Sunday there was bound to be an accommodation problem. Because of the urgent need for larger Church School facilities, first priority in the Diocesan Capital Funds Campaign was given St. Paul's, Levittown, for the erection of a Parish House. So concerned was St. Paul's with its own problem that last Spring it entered into a fund raising campaign of its own, which produced $56,000 in pledges, payable over a three year period. Payments on these pledges are now coming in and the Mission has already forwarded $5,000 to the Treasurer of the Diocese. Plans for the building have been drawn and approved and bids sought; the cost is estimated at $80,000, of which the Mission will repay $56,000, the sum pledged in its own Campaign. As soon as the Diocese has in hand sufficient funds from the Capital Funds Campaign to underwrite the contract, the work will begin. While St. Paul's was taking pledges for the building of a Parish House, it also was receiving $17,869.33 from offerings and payments on pledges for the current expenses and as of July 1, 1957, relinquished all Diocesan financial aid.

Again referral to the statistics shows growth and development right across the board at Grace Church, Hulmeville. There has been increase in communicant strength, in the number of persons baptized and confirmed, and in attendance at Church Service. In February of 1957 Grace Church celebrated its 125th Anniversary. The commemorative program did much to bring Grace Church to the attention of the whole community. A new Lectern Bible and offering plates were some of the gifts presented to the Church in honor of the occasion. The men of the Parish continued their rehabilitation program by laying a tile floor in the Church and by digging out a basement under the Church, which will provide additional classrooms and meeting room facilities. This latter is the hardest kind of work and, therefore, bespeaks the tremendous loyalty of this devoted group of laymen. "These are some minor indications that God is continuing to guide and prosper our work in Hulmeville."

It was a good year for Christ Church, Eddington. There were 45 baptisms and 37 were confirmed. A large number of new young families have come to worship (the kind that want to work and help). All in all it was a year rich in Christian fellowship and growth. The Mission gladly assumed the $200 increase in clergy salary voted at the last Diocesan Convention. A brand new 1957 Ford bus and a first rate used Brockway, each accommodating 48 children, have been purchased. This gives the Mission three dependable safe-running buses (which was not always true in the past), and with careful scheduling keeps them within legal carrying limits. The young married couples are continuing their efforts on soundproofing the undercroft of the Church, which at present accommodates 100 small children below the age of five years, at the time of the Family Service in the Church. The Vicar says that competition gets quite keen at times — hence the need for soundproofing. The Vestry would gladly have provided the necessary funds, but the YMC wants to make this their very own endeavor. This YMC is an energetic group, most have joined the Church within the last year or two and now (hear this) are interested in conducting canvasses, drives and working for the advance of Christ Church.

The only cloud to threaten the fair skies of Christ Church, Eddington,—the proposed Delaware Expressway, has darkened as this report is filed. Though the exact right-of-way could never be learned, it appeared certain that the church property at Eddington must surely lie athwart its course, which is now borne out. The Vicar and the Dean with several Diocesan officials will attend a public hearing on the matter in the near future.

Growing pains are being felt in Bucks County as far up as New Hope. The Executive Committee of the Convocation held discussions with a Committee of St. Philip's Church, New Hope, relative to the construction of a combination vicarage and Parish House. But because of Diocesan priorities set up earlier in 1957, the Executive Committee could make no commitment on this project. But the people of St. Philip's are anxious to meet the challenge confronting them, with the result that the Dean has the following information from New Hope:

"Through the intervention of several of the members of the Ladies Guild, a property has been offered to us at a very advantageous price. It is separated from the present Chapel by a small piece of undeveloped land which belongs to an estate. It is of sufficient size to provide quarters for the Vicar and space, when a few simple alterations have been made, for the beginnings of a Sunday School. We are developing the format for a local Trustee Board which will assume responsibility for the financial aspects and we will proceed on this basis, conducting our fund raising campaign locally. This should, pro tem, at least, relieve your mind as it will make provision for a start on these vital projects as soon as we can take title. This should come some time in June.

Bishop Hart has given his sanction to this approach and is encouraging with his commendation. I trust this will be equally heartening to you."

All Saints', Fallsington, is very happy with its new Parish House and is working with quiet contentment.

There are many things in a year for which a Dean of Convocation is grateful and for these I express my thanks, but in addition I would express gratitude and appreciation to:

The members of the Executive Committee for counsel and advice;

The Chairmen of Committees of the Convocation and their members who have given time and talent with willingness to attend to details;

Mrs. Charles Myers and the Woman's Auxiliary who have given so much power both spiritual and practical to our joint missionary work;

The Rectors of the Parishes who have entertained us with so much Christian hospitality.

And to all those who contributed to the Diocesan Capital Funds Campaign, giving muscle to the missionary work of the Diocese, and especially the Deans of the other Convocations for their undersanding charity in granting top priority to the building of a Parish House at St. Paul's, Levittown.

WILLIAM J. DIETRICH,

Dean of the Convocation

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY — CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

In the year 1957 three meetings were held with an encouraging increase in attendance. The January meeting took place at St. Luke's Church, Germantown, when Mrs. Victor Perrin was the Speaker. In April, following a Luncheon at the Church of the Resurrection, Mayfair, a "Go See Trip" was made to four Missions in Bucks County, i.e. Eddington, Levittown, Fallsington and Hulmeville. In October a joint supper meeting with the men of the Convocation was held at St. Mark's Church, Frankford, and was followed by a Service at which Bishop Bentley preached.

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Convocation of Norristown has continued to grow as a result of the continued increase in the population of the entire area and our missions have shown that they have worked hard to absorb more people into their church life.

St. Philip-in-the-Field, Oreland, having completed their new church building, fulfilled their expectation and at the Diocesan Convention last May became a parish. This caused us to give thanks to God, to the Vicar and all the people of this fine congregation for the wonderful things they have done over the years to make this step possible. We would like to give a special word of praise to the Reverend Edward E. Elliott, the first Rector, for bringing this congregation to the status of a Parish in such a short time after he was appointed Vicar.

Epiphany Church, Royersford, has had a good year and the growth has been steady. This fine congregation under the able leadership of the Reverend Earl H. Brill is making a good contribution to the life of this community and is absorbing its share of the Christian people and making its influence felt. With the improvements in the Church and Rectory comes the delight of having a suitable and beautiful place to worship and a pride in good appearance. In a few years this congregation should be able to build some additions to its buildings and thereby increase its working capacity.

St. Anne, Willow Grove. By the combined efforts of the Vicar, the Reverend Harold A. Hopkins, and the people of this mission, we have seen an increased growth that means that they must soon have a new Church Building. Toward this end the Vicar and people have begun a campaign, which is still continuing, to raise their share of the money that it will cost to erect a church. So far it has met with success and we expect to see the new building started in the near future.

The Church of The Good Shepherd, Hilltown, is continuing its remarkable progress in the service of God and the people of the community. The paving of the driveway and the parking area has been a big help in using the facilities of their expanded buildings. This mission has grown remarkably and the leadership of the Reverend Dr. Nathanael B. Groton and what he has done here was demonstrated this year when he was forced by illness to be absent from this work which has been so close to his heart. The people one and all, took hold and carried on and we are all praying that Dr. Groton will be able to be back with them soon.

Trinity Church, Gulph Mills, under the new Vicar the Reverend Herbert H. Beardsley has been a source of joy to the Convocation this year because we were able to begin the new Church Building which has been needed for several years. Consequently the congregation has shown a new growth and an increase of interest and zeal. The people of this congregation are planning to do their part in furnishing the church building as soon as it is finished.

The Diocese and Convocation is still in the process of beginning work at King of Prussia. Several sites have been considered but as yet none has been selected as the proper location to erect the buildings and to begin work in this growing community.

A great deal of the credit for material and spiritual encouragement must be given to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation for the success we have experienced during the year. These good women work for the Kingdom of God in this Convocation and we are all blessed by their efforts. God bless you.

God has given us many blessings during the past year and we thank Him.

Dean of the Convocation

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation of Norristown met on May 2, at St. Paul's, Elkins Park, 130 members present, representing 25 parishes, and on October 3 at Emmanuel, Quakertown, 137 present representing 21 parishes. Vicars reported on the Mission of the Convocation and Standing Committee Reports were given at both meetings. The Spring program "Know Your Convocation" dealt with the growth of the population and the Church in our areas. A Go-See trip to Good Shepherd Mission, Hilltown, was the finale of our Fall meeting.

Several auxiliaries participated in presenting material for use in the Parishes at an interesting Education Day held in September at St. Thomas, Whitemarsh.

A Quiet Day conducted by Rev. James Ludwig was held for Norristown Convocation at St. Margaret's House.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Spring Meeting of the Convocation was held at St. James The Less. It was well attended by representatives from most of our Parishes and Missions. The Fall Meeting consisted of our second Go-and-See trip. It began with a Celebration of the Holy Eucharist at the newly-renovated Church of St. Augustine and the Covenant, with visits to All Souls for the Deaf, St. Bartholomew, and Advocate and ended up with lunch at the Annunciation. In each place we were pleased to see things going ahead, evidence of some hard work by all concerned.

There have been some changes in our Convocation during the past year. First of all the President of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation retired after several terms of successful work. We express to Mrs. Evans our sincere appreciation for her time and talents which she gave so willingly. To take her place we welcome Mrs. Wm. Loane as our new President, and pledge our support.

The Vicar of St. Bartholomew's, The Rev. Henry Sharp, has left the convocation. His place is being filled by the Rev. Ernest Sinfield.

The Vicar of St. George's, Richmond, the Rev. Baldwin, has left the Diocese. His place will be filled by the Rev. David Seaboldt.

St. Paul's, Aramingo, has a new Rector in the Person of the Rev. Mr. VanAtta. St. Luke's Kensington is without a Rector at the present. To all the new men we extend a sincere welcome, hoping they will stay with us for a while.

I wrote in some length last year about the recreational work being carried on at St. Barnabas under the supervision of the Rev. Harry Blair. This continues to grow. We are glad the Women of the Diocese took this on as a Special Project for the year. The Lighthouse continues to cooperate in this undertaking.

Respectfully,

DAVID O. TRAUGER,
Dean

WOMAN'S AID TO NORTH PHILADELPHIA CONVOCATION

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation of North Philadelphia held two business meetings combined with programs, a Quiet Day, and a "Go-See-Trip." The winter meeting was held on January 8th, at Grace and Incarnation Church, Edgemont and Venango Sts., and after luncheon, the Reverend Jerry Carpenter of the City Mission spoke to the women on Alcoholism.

The Quiet Day was held on March twelfth, at the Church of the Annunciation, Twelfth and Diamond Sts. Father Harris celebrated the Holy Communion, and the Reverend Kenneth Hines conducted the Quiet Day.

On April twenty-ninth, our meeting was held at the Church of St. James the Less, Thirty-second and Clearfield Sts., in the afternoon, at which time we heard reports from the Auxiliary presidents and Mrs. William P. C. Loane was installed as chairman. The women joined the men for a service, and after dinner Bishop Hart was the speaker.

In the fall we met on Saturday the twelfth of October for our "Go-See-Trip." Father Turner celebrated the Holy Communion at St. Augustine's Church of the Covenant, Twenty-seventh and Girard, where we started out, and afterwards the women of the parish served coffee and rolls. From there we visited in turn St. Bartholomew's, All Souls' Mission for the Deaf, The Church of the Advocate, and were also received for luncheon by Father Harris and the women of the Woman's Auxiliary at the Church of the Annunciation. Everyone who went felt that it had been a most rewarding experience. The Rectors and Vicars were gracious hosts and all spoke enthusiastically about their work and parish projects.

All of the women in the Convocation appreciate the years of dedicated service Mrs. Evans gave as president of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of North Philadelphia, and we will continue to count on her loyalty and devotion.

Respectfully submitted,

FLORENCE P. LOANE

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

It is encouraging to read from time to time what the "City Fathers" are planning for the older part of Philadelphia. With the establishment of Society Hill and the improvements being made in South Philadelphia, we are hopeful that the Church will play an important part in the lives of the people in this area. The opening of the Walt Whitman bridge has helped business and industry and, to some extent, the Church.

The Convocation met in April at the Chapel of the Prince of Peace. It elected the Rev. J. Aubrey Cragg as Clerical Representative to the Executive Council and Dr. Raymond Snyder, of St. Peter's Church, as Lay Representative.

Under the leadership of the Rev. Theron A. Vallee, St. Elizabeth's Mission is ministering to its community. Everything is being done to welcome the people to its services. Extensive improvements have been made in the church, parish house, and vicarage to make these buildings more convenient and attractive for worship and for other gatherings.

The Rev. John R. Logan, Jr., for a number of years Secretary to the Convocation, resigned this office because of added responsibilities as Rector of St. Simon the Cyrenian. His resignation was accepted with regret. The Rev. Theron A. Vallee was elected Secretary to succeed him.

During the past year the Convocation reported the deaths of the Rev. Thomas E. Little, Vicar of St. Mary's Chapel, the Rev. Cornelius R. Dawson, Rector of the Church of the Crucifixion, the Rev. John R. Logan, Sr., D.D., Rector-Emeritus of St. Simon the Cyrenian, and the Rev. James Da Costa Harewood, D.D., retired Rector of St. Philip's Church. "Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them."

We welcome to the Convocation the Rev. Bruce P. Williamson, D.D., Vicar of St. Mary's Chapel, and the Rev. Charles F.

Kelbaugh, Priest-in-charge and Missionary Assistant of St. Peter's Church.

We congratulate the Rev. Edward B. Pollanick upon his election as Rector of All Saints', Rhawnhurst. Mr. Pollanick was Associate Rector of Holy Trinity and we wish him God's blessing in his new field of service.

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation, under the able leadership of Mrs. Frederic Nelson, has been of great help to the Convocation in carrying on its work. We thank the members for their good work and trust that, through our united efforts, we may present the Gospel effectively to the many people in our area. The Convocation, together with the Woman's Aid, appropriated funds for scholarships to send some of our young people to the Diocesan Summer Conference. These young men and young women appreciate our help. It is our hope that we may continue to send more and more of them to these conferences.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The past year has been marked by successful and constructive endeavors in the life of our Missions and we are grateful to our Vicars for their loyalty and devotion in fulfilling their several responsibilities.

St. Cyprian Mission—The Rev. Paul M. Washington, Vicar

St. Monica Mission —The Rev. Matthew Wesley Davis, Vicar

St. Titus Mission —Mr. Joseph R. Gatto, Seminarian-in-Charge

The year 1957 for St. Cyprian's was one of its best, and for the spread of the Kingdom.

St. Cyprian's purchased a new Organ. Twelve hundred dollars was borrowed from the Bishop in April to augment the sum which we had already raised. By January of 1958 the last payment was sent to him to liquidate completely this indebtedness.

Our Capital Fund Assessment was paid in full by the month of July for the year 1957.

The Mission absorbed the increase voted for Vicar's salaries and later increased their share of his salary by a substantial amount.

"Redevelopment" has become one of the most widely used words in the Eastwick Area. What it has and will mean to the people of this community, cannot be ignored. New Candidates for Confirmation are at a minimum; transfers to other Churches are increasing; insecurity mounting. The Mission is already affected by some who have moved away, and each new couple entering marriage leaves Eastwick for more stable communities in other sections of the city.

St. Monica's Mission—The work at St. Monica's during the year 1957 was very fruitful, although the members feel that the Mission is in need of better facilities for the growing work.

The Church School is growing; the children as well as the teachers are increasing in membership — 18 teachers and 78 students. The Upper Church School meets at 10:00 a.m. each Sunday and the Lower Church School meets at 11:00 a.m.

The Woman's Auxiliary has taken on new life and for the first time is having monthly meetings at the church in the evenings.

The Altar Guild has done a fine work and has purchased five new sets of vestments.

The Choir, under the direction of Mrs. A. Sisco, has done exceptionally well and has purchased a set of Deacon Chimes at the cost of $475.00.

The Men's Fellowship meets monthly in different homes and they are bringing new interest in the Church.

The Rector's Aid Guild, though few in number, as always, has been very active. They are a great support to the Vicar in many ways.

St. Monica's Guild is a fine-working group of young women who meet in various homes and they are supporting the Church in every way. They had two successful fund-raising affairs.

The Teen-Age Canteen meets each Saturday evening and there are about fifty young people who constitute the membership.

The Boy Scout Troop No. 183 meets each Friday evening. The Troop is growing and is composed of a fine group of boys.

Finally, there is a loyal group of Servers who are dedicated to the Services of the Church.

St. Titus Mission—St. Titus Mission this year has undergone many changes. Mr. Larry P. Davis became Seminarian-in-Charge in April, 1957, succeeding Mr. Louis Sexton. Mr. Davis resigned his position in November, leaving Mr. Gatto, his assistant, as Seminarian-in-Charge.

Under Mr. Davis, many physical improvements were accomplished; a new floor for the Parish House, the work being done by the men of the parish; a new Church Office (donated by the Woman's Auxiliary of the West Philadelphia Convocation); and the renovating of the Church Vicarage.

During the Summer, under the direction of Mr. Davis, there was an extensive program for the young people, including a "Daily Vacation Bible School."

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Titus has been very active this year, and has been a source of strength for the Mission both spiritually and financially. At Thanksgiving, for example, they collected food for the Episcopal Hospital.

The Altar Guild, although small in numbers, has also done an excellent job.

The City's plan for Redevelopment in this area has had a great effect upon the people at St. Titus. It has naturally given us, as well as the whole community, a feeling of uncertainty as to the future of our Church. In the face of this, the present congregation, although small in number, is strong in faith, taking it upon themselves to bring new people into the life of the Church.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION
Annual Report of 1957

The year 1957 in the department was one of steady growth and development without "any fire works." The department has been concerned with two major problems, the building up of a greater supply of leadership in all phases of its work, and the need of a greater degree of understanding of its task and operations both within the department itself and throughout the diocese as a whole. It was with this latter problem in mind that the suggestion was made to the Bishop that another conference such as he held in Buck Hill Falls in 1951 would be of tremendous value to the diocese as a whole.

In December Bishop Hart and four members of the department attended a "Leadership Strategy Planning Conference" held by the Leadership Training Division of the National Department of Christian Education at the Roslyn Conference Center in Richmond, Virginia. The insights gained by all who attended the conference will be of real help in the reorientation of the department and in its development of a definite program for its work over the next six or seven years, which it is wrestling with as this is written.

After four years of devoted service, and a contribution to the smooth functioning of Room 30, that it is hard to over praise, Mrs. Maurice Rowley resigned as office secretary to the department. She was succeeded by Miss Jean Shainline who was with us for five months, and on October 1st, Mrs. Gladys Harrison took her place, and is working effectively.

ADULT DIVISION

Mrs. C. Stanley Rogers, Chairman

A Parish Life Mission was held January 13th-17th at St. George's Church, Ardmore. Leaders: The Rev. Alfred Persons of the National Department of Christian Education and Miss Beryl M. Newman, executive secretary of this department. Members of the Leadership Training Division attended in order to lead future parish life missions in the diocese. The value of such conferences is unquestionable but at the present time we feel we do not have the leadership for same in our diocese.

Parish Life Conferences

Four multi-parish life conferences were held and all were filled to capacity. Several parish ones were held at which the executive secretary served as observer.

An adult educational pamphlet was prepared showing channels and means for adult education in the parish. The Adult Division of the National Department of Christian Education requested permission to edit, adapt and publish this pamphlet for use by the whole Church. This was granted but it was delayed in publication, not being available until early 1958.

This diocese was host to a provincial conference on Adult education at the Conference Center. Miss Emma Lou Benignus and the Rev. Donald Davis were the leaders.

CHILDREN'S DIVISION

Mrs. David E. Hilsee, Chairman

Prepared or authorized preparation of Mission Study Bulletin; Holy Week — Easter Supplement; Summer in Parish Bulletin; and two issues of the "Memorandum from Room 30." The second "Memo" covered Advent-Christmas and mission study; and suggested that the mission study for 1958—"Japan" be a parish project in Epiphany. The department approved the recommendation that the "Memorandum from Room 30" idea be revised and the seasonal bulletins discontinued but seasonal helps be given in the "Memo."

The 87th Annual Church School Institute was held on Monday, October 7th at the Christian Association. At 5:00 p.m. Miss Edith Daly, D.R.E. at St. Thomas Church, Whitemarsh, spoke to the Seabury Series and a panel of teachers spoke to their experience with it.

The Rev. Randolph Crump Miller, Ph.D., Professor of Christian Education at Yale Divinity School, was the dinner speaker. His topic was Biblical Theology and Christian Education and for those present it was a high point of the year.

The usual spring days were set aside for individual parish help in planning a Church School curriculum. This was staffed by the executive secretary and her assistant.

Church School-by-Mail

Forty-eight new children were enrolled, making a total of two hundred and fifty-four for the year. Sixty-one became affiliated with the nearest Sunday Schools, of various denominations. Forty children moved away and eleven were dropped from roll for various reasons, leaving a total at the end of the year of one hundred and forty-two.

The parishes actively participating in this work were Advent, Kennett Square; St. John, Concord; Ascension, West Chester; St. James, Downingtown; Ascension, Parkesburg; St. John, Compass; St. Mark, Honey Brook; and St. Mary's, Warwick. Other members of the Church School-by-Mail are scattered through Chester and Upper Bucks County where no parishes are assisting.

Response by returned question sheets was 55% — 50% of which were returned every month, and 50% irregularly. Others responded by cards or letters, and showed interest when visited.

There were visits made to one hundred and seventy-five families: eighty-seven on roll, and eighty-eight hunting new children. Two hundred and eighty-one Christmas presents were given through the Church School-by-Mail and by the parishes. Five families received social service. Mite box offering was $10.60. Two-hundred and fifty-five scholarships were received.

Guild of the Christ Child

There are approximately 60 parishes using this material for parents of the pre-school child.

Special Offerings Committee

The 1957 Church School Missionary Offering amounted to $29,886.65 — from 166 parishes, plus Church School-by-Mail and the Church School at the Naval Base. The Presentation Service was held on Sunday, May 26th on the ground of Episcopal Academy. The preacher was the Rev. Philemon F. Sturges, Chairman of the Department of Christian Education and rector of St. Martin-in-the-Fields. The choirs numbered approximately 1600 girls and boys.

The Advent Offering (to date) totalled $762.39 from 21 parishes and was for Church School equipment for St. Mary's Chapel of the Cathedral Church of Christ. The new Chapter House is to be used for the Church School.

The Birthday Thank Offering for 1957 amounted to $211.07 from 13 parishes.

Christmas Box — approximately 30 Church Schools gave more than 2500 gifts to institutions and missions through the diocesan Christmas Committee.

Vacation Church Schools

We continue to cooperate with the Philadelphia Council of Churches in their training sessions and to help parishes and missions plan their curriculum.

Weekday Religious Education

Our representatives continue to work with the Philadelphia Council of Churches in this area of work. The main emphasis this year was working with teachers in the area of religion and public education.

YOUTH WORK

The Rev. Robert Nelson Back, Chairman

A Parish Life Conference for the Youth Council and other young people was held February 1st-3rd at the Conference Center.

The Winter issue of the Youth Guide was mailed out in January. This is now in a more permanent form and known as the Youth Guide Notebook.

The annual Episcopal Young Churchmen's Service was held March 3rd, 4:00 p.m., at St. Luke and the Epiphany. The Rev. Charles Martin, Headmaster of St. Alban's School, Washington, was the preacher. A reception for over a thousand young people, their rectors and advisors was held in the parish house following the service.

The Rev. Crofton Thompson, the executive secretary and six young people attended the Provincial Youth meeting at Claggett Conference Center, Diocese of Maryland, April 29th-May 1st.

The diocesan Youth Convention was held on May 4th at the Conference Center. The Rev. Stanley Johnson was the main speaker. Attendance — almost 400 from approximately 60 parishes.

Two Senior High Youth Conferences were held again this year — June 16th-22nd: Dean, The Rev. Robert N. Back; Chaplain, The Very Rev. Frederic R. Murray, Dean of the Cathedral of St. Paul, Erie. June 23rd-June 29th: Dean, The Rev. Philemon F. Sturges; Chaplain, The Rev. William T. Warren. The Junior High Conference was held June 30th-July 6th: Dean, The Rev. Benjamin Narbeth; Chaplain, The Rev. Albert M. Holloway.

All three conferences were filled, with a stand-by list for the last two.

Youth Council Weekend at the Conference Center — September 13th-15th — and ten District Youth Meetings were held on Sunday, October 6th. Total attendance was almost 1200 despite inclement weather.

Summer Conference Reunions were held at the Conference Center December 20th and 21st.

The Youth Commission met in November and planned for a series of area training sessions for advisors.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING DIVISION

The Rev. H. Lawrence Whittemore, Jr., Chairman

This division serves all the divisions of the department and the chairman of each division with other members-at-large compose its personnel. The following are leadership training events:

For the training of parish teacher training teams — (continuance of schedule started in fall of 1956) — February 16th and May 11th at the Conference Center.

—Church School Institute — October 7th.

—Skill Shops (in cooperation with Philadelphia Council of Churches) — October 25th and 26th.

—Swap Shop for teachers of the Seabury Series — November 24th at the Conference Center. This was well attended and well received — the teachers asked for another meeting in the spring.

The division set up plans for the department in January to participate in a one-day conference patterned on the provincial leadership strategy planning conference held at Roslyn Conference Center — December 9th-12th.

AUDIO-VISUAL AIDS

The Rev. Kenneth C. Werner, Chairman

This library and service continues to expand — approximately 700 filmstrips and slide sets and 17 - 16 mm. films. Eighty parishes and missions are now members of the Audio-Visual Cooperative. A new catalogue was printed — and mailed out to Co-op members — adidtional copies are available at $1.00 each.

Deep thanks must again be expressed to the many volunteers, members of the department and of its committees, who by their loyal and unstinting gifts of time, skill, and energy, have made possible whatever of value the department has been enabled to accomplish this past year.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

The Department of Christian Social Relations of the Executive Council of the Diocese of Pennsylvania functions in the areas of concern of its three main Divisions, whose annual reports are summarized below, and through ad hoc and other committees related to the Department as a whole.

Forty-one clergy and lay people serve as members of the Department, and meet monthly. In its work it is counselled by the Rev. Arnold Purdie as Executive Secretary with the part time staff assistance of Miss Florence Davies and the Rev. Arthur C. Barnhart.

In seeking to gear its future program to the needs of parishes, the Department in 1957 sought the counsel of the parish clergy among its members. As a result it has a group of eight parish rectors committed to engage in ventures in the area of Christian Social Relations within, or through, their respective parishes over a two or three year period, and to meet quarterly under the chairmanship of the Rev. Charles Francis Ehly to report and share their experiences.

In 1957, in cooperation with the Woman's Auxiliary's Department of Christian Social Relations, a "Joint Legislative Committee" was established under the chairmanship of Martin P. Snyder, Esq., to consider the legislative implications of matters of concern to our Department. The Resolution on Refugee Legislation adopted by the 1957 Diocesan Convention was one result of the new committee's effort.

Under the Honorary Chairmanship of the Bishop of the Diocese, the Department and Christ Church sponsored the week long "Church and Freedom Celebration" in the fall of 1957. The colorful opening service, the well attended afternoon and evening seminars, and the panoramic photographic exhibit loaned us by the National Council, were well publicized and made an imprint on the thinking of our citizenry as to the historic roots of our traditional freedoms in the Christian faith. This concern is being delineated by the theme of the 1958 Institute, "The Gospel in the Community" — a venture under the chairmanship of the Rev. James G. Ludwig, III.

Seven clergy and laymen served on a committee which met a number of times with Clark Hanna, Esq., to consider the resolution introduced by him at the 1957 Convention of the Diocese which was referred to the Department.

In the Fall of 1957, the National Council referred to the Department a communication it had received regarding the death sentence levied against a fifteen year old boy. A committee under the chairmanship of Henry Thomas Dolan, Esq., was appointed to deal with this matter, and, at its request, it has been enlarged in membership and scope to consider the entire question of Capital Punishment.

By appointment of the Bishop, three members of the Department serve on the "Central Committee on Christian Social Relations of the Five Dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Pennsylvania."

Division of World Relief and Church Cooperation—Under the chairmanship of Martin P. Snyder, Esq., the splendid record of the Diocese of Pennsylvania in finding homes, jobs, and sponsors for refugees from natural disasters and man-made disasters of war and political tyranny, was maintained through the Hungarian crisis until failure to enact appropriate legislation almost closed the door to further admission of such refugees. Through the indefatigable efforts of Miss Florence Davies forty-one such refugees were resettled in 1957.

Pending resumption of the need for placement of refugees, the Division will concern itself with following such refugees as it has placed, working with the parishes who have sponsored them, and publicizing the need for support of the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

Division of Health and Welfare—Under the chairmanship of the Rev. Stanley R. West, D.D., this Division functioned in five areas.

Under the leadership of the Rev. Jerry E. Carpenter, the Alcohol Committee of the Division undertook the 1957 Institute sponsored by the Department on "Social Drinking." Chairman of the 1957 Institute was the Rev. James R. MacColl, III, who secured Dr. Ebbe Curtis Hoff to address the approximately 200 Church people at the dinner in connection with the afternoon and evening Institute on March fourth. The Department has recommended that this be followed by a conference on the same subject for the clergy of the Diocese.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Anita Peck Rothenhausler of the Brochure Committee, Mrs. Leonard Moak completed a brochure on "Church Related Agencies and Institutions." Its publication and distribution has been held up due to fundamental changes in the programs of several of the agencies.

The Narcotics Committee, under the chairmanship of the Rev. Arthur G. Elcombe has gathered a great deal of pertinent data and heard from some outstanding authorities in the field. It awaits further instructions from the Department as to the approach to what it considers primarily a health problem towards which more adequate education and legislation should be directed.

The Division assisted the National Council in providing services for the Episcopalians attending the National Conference on Social Welfare. About 100 of them shared in the Corporate Communion and Breakfast at Christ Church on May 21st, and 80 of them were entertained at a buffet supper at St. Mary's Church on May 22nd.

A Committee on Church Related Agencies and Institutions was established in the course of the year under the chairmanship of the Rev. Ernest G. Harding. It has taken into its preview the help the Department might give to these agencies.

Division of Christian Citizenship—Fifteen members of the Department served on this Division under the chairmanship of Edward Shippen Morris, Esq., with Henry Thomas Dolan, Esq., as vice-chairman.

In the course of the year, the Committee on the Christian and His Daily Work, comprised of twenty lay people and clergy of the Diocese under the chairmanship of Mr. Dolan, held ten monthly meetings seeking to arrive at certain convictions regarding the Christian Faith and one's daily work which it could share with church people throughout the Diocese. Its deliberations have been provocative, and we anticipate a further sharing of its insights and convictions.

The results of the 1956 Questionnaire on Racial Policy addressed to Church-related institutions of the Diocese was tabulated, and a report of the entire project was made. It was a satisfaction to have this report duplicated and circulated by the National Council.

The Division lent staff assistance to the following Committees of the Department as a whole: Parish-Christian Social Relations, Joint Legislative, the Institute, Church and Freedom Celebration, Hanna Resolution, Capital Punishment.

In addition to its modest achievements in 1957 the Department has laid the groundwork for effective and continued accomplishment in the year ahead.

Respectfully submitted,

SYDNEY L. W. LEA,

Chairman

APPENDIX I

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CELEBRATION OF THE 175th DIOCESAN ANNIVERSARY

In November 1783, Dr. White, the Rector of Old Christ Church suggested to his Vestry that a meeting be called with the Vestries and Clergy of the three Churches in Philadelphia to discuss the formation of a representative body for the Church in Pennsylvania. On March 29, 1784, the Clergy and representative lay persons of Christ Church, St. Peter's Church and St. Paul's Church met for the purpose of forming a representative body of the Episcopal Church in this State. They resolved to ask a conference with such members of the Episcopal Churches in the counties of the State. A meeting was held on May 24, 1784 at which there were representatives from Christ Church, St. Peter's Church, St. Paul's Church, St. James, Bristol, Trinity, Oxford, All Saints, Torresdale, St. Paul's, Chester, St. David's, Radnor, St. Peter in the Valley, St. Martin's, Marcus Hook. On the following day, May 25, the congregations of St. James, Lancaster, St. James, Perkiomen, St. John's, New London, Huntington Church, York County, St. Mary's, Reading and St. Gabriel's, Berks County joined with them.

This group met at Christ Church for three days, and elected White as chairman and adopted a resolution that "Each church shall have one vote whether represented by one or more persons, or whether two or more united congregations be represented by one man or set of men." This Convention adopted a set of fundamental principles calling for complete independence of the Episcopal Church from foreign powers, and called upon other States to work for a general constitution.

It is this meeting on May 24, 1784 that marks the beginning of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Because of the importance of this great Diocese of Pennsylvania, it is fitting that an observance of 175th Anniversary of the beginning of this Diocese be held at an appropriate service held in connection with the Diocesan Convention of 1959, and that the day be Monday evening May 4, 1959. The place has not been determined. Some consideration has been given to the Academy of Music, which would hold approximately 3,000 persons. The Presiding Bishop should be invited as a speaker, and the Bishops of the other four Dioceses in Pennsylvania should be invited. It would be appropriate to have the choirs of the founding Churches lead the singing.

It is suggested that a commemorative service be held at Old Christ Church on the Sunday preceding Convention, and

That an Exhibit of papers, documents, books, and pictures connected with the early beginnings of the Diocese be prepared and a suitable place found where they may be seen, and

That a historical pamphlet or booklet be prepared, giving the details that led up to the formation of this outstanding Diocese, together with other events that have happened during the past 175 years. In this connection, we call attention to the fact that there exists no complete history of the Diocese, and we urge the preparation and printing of such a history, and

That the observance of the 175th Anniversary of the Diocese be commemorated in every parish and mission of the Diocese, and

That a pageant of this event be made a part of the Presentation Service of the Lenten Mite Box Offering, and

That the Youth Convention give consideration to this observance, and

That Diocesan organizations and institutions be interested in taking part, such as the Bishop White Prayer Book Society, the Female Prayer Book Society, the Episcopal Academy, the Corporation for the Relief of Widows and Orphans, the Advancement Society, the Woman's Auxiliary, etc. etc.

The Committee would welcome suggestions and advice in carrying out its plans.

The following Resolution is presented:

RESOLVED, that the Committee be authorized to prepare for a suitable observance of the 175th Anniversary of the founding of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and

That the Committee be empowered to add additional members to its committee,

That an initial appropriation of $1,000 be made available out of Convention Funds, to cover such expenses of printing, notices, postage, etc., so that a worthy and fitting observance of the 175th Anniversary of the Diocese may be carried out.

As of December 31, 1957, the Endowment Fund of the Episcopate was invested in 34,224 units of the Church Foundation Consolidated Fund having a book value of $400,814.61. The market value of these units was considerably greater. In addition there was a principal cash balance in the amount of $31,356.32 temporarily invested in U. S. Treasury bills.

The Diocese received income disbursements of $21,868.58 from this Fund during the year 1957, representing an income return of about 5½% on the original investment. This rate of return has been maintained on account of higher earnings of the Consolidated Fund units which has offset higher market values. Income disbursements amounted to $20,685.93 in 1956 and $19,012.36 in 1955.

Liquidated Funds

The following withdrawals were made on request of the Parish Authorities by redemption of units of the Consolidated Fund.

By an amendment to the Pennsylvania Inheritance Tax Law any bequests made to organizations operated exclusively for religious or charitable purposes are now exempt from an inheritance tax. The bill was finally passed and approved by the Governor on July 11, 1957 as Act Number 381. Therefore all legacies designated for Church purposes will be tax exempt effective to estates of persons having died after the above mentioned date.

Mission Properties

A total of $3,060,582.00 fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, is now in force on 28 Mission properties in the Diocese. This insurance is mostly placed wth the Church Fire Insurance Corporation and represents at least 80% of insurable value which complies with the direction of the Executive Council. Increased insurance on twelve Mission properties was put into effect during the past year.

The Church Fire Insurance Corporation reduced its rates last year to a 20% discount below annual rates established by the Rating Board. The former rates were 12% below Board rates. The new rates became effective on all Church Foundation policies from the end of the first policy quarter after April 15, 1957. Privilege is continued of insuring for five years at four times the annual rate and paying the premiums in twenty quarterly installments.

The following is a list of the Mission properties together with the insurance in force:

	Amount

Fine Arts Insurance

Many new appraisals bringing values up to date were received from the Church Fire Insurance Corporation during the year. In most appraisals there were specific values given to stained glass Church windows. In these cases a Fine Arts All Risk policy, including breakage, is very advantageous. This coverage may be obtained at only slightly higher rates, the only requirement being that the amount of fine arts insurance be 100% of replacement cost. The building insurance can then be reduced by 80% of the insurable value of the stained glass windows.

Upon our recommendation, we have been authorized by the Diocese to put into effect fine arts coverage on Mission Churches when a specific value is given to stained glass windows. We have recommended it also to our Parishes when up to date figures are available.

The following Parishes and Missions have added Fine Arts insurance during the past year.

Emmanuel, Quakertown
Holy Comforter, Drexel Hill
Redeemer, Springfield
Resurrection, Mayfair
All Souls for the Deaf, Phila.
Ascension, Parkesburg
St. Ambrose, Phila.
St. Barnabas, Kensington
St. George, Richmond

Claims Paid During Year 1957

On properties having title vested in The Church Foundation the following claims were paid:

Public Liability

St. Barnabas, Germantown — Two claims involving personal injuries were paid. (1) A member of the Choir, for expenses in connection with injury sustained to her foot from a falling wardrobe — $51.00. (2) An accident to the wife of the Rector, who, while walking from the Parish House to the Church, stepped on some boards laid in the path which gave way under her, causing her to break her wrist — $170.

Windstorm

St. Elisabeth's, Phila. damage to Church and Rectory — $85.

Church of Ascension, Parkesburg received payment of $455.21 in full settlement of claim for loss suffered to the steeple October 14, 1955. The delay in payment was due to delay encountered in getting the work done.

St. George, West Phila. payment of $1,250. for damage to tower of Church caused by storm in June, 1957.

Vandalism

St. Peter, Broomall — claim of $24.95 paid for damage by vandalism on October 30, 1957.

Fire

Damage to St. Andrew, Yardley Rectory — $68.

Damage at Trinity Memorial Church, Phila. — $345.81

Details handled directly by above Parishes.

Lightning

Damage to electrical system in mercantile buildings of Church of Redemption, 56th and Market Streets, Phila. — $75.

Damage to electric range at Diocesan Conference Center — $40.

Pending Suit for Claim Not Paid

On January 28, 1956, a young lady delegate to the Youth Conference at the Conference Center was injured while tobogganing during a break in the Conference schedule.

After thorough investigation, the Indemnity Insurance Company of North America, which insures the liability for Bodily Injury of the Diocese and the Church Foundation at all locations, concluded that no negligence on our part was involved. Since it is our policy not to carry insurance granting voluntary payment of medical expenses where no negligence on our part exists, the insurance company paid only the small expense involved in giving immediate first aid.

The injury to the young lady has apparently involved substantial medical expenses, and on January 3, 1958, The Church Foundation and the Diocese were each served with a Complaint in Trespass brought by her father, claiming $75,000.

Our insurance company is confident of its ability to defend against the allegation of negligence on the part of the Diocese. In any case, the insurance company must undertake the defense and pay any indemnity which may ultimately be adjudged, up to $100,000. which is the limit of liability coverage in this case.

Electrical Inspections

Our Insurance Committee as authorized by the Diocese, proceeded to arrange for the inspection of all electrical equipment on Mission and Diocesan properties by the Middle Department Association of Fire Underwriters. Report following inspection was submitted on 31 such properties. Compliance with these recommendations stood as follows on November 26, 1957.

3 Properties had no deficiences on original inspection.

16 Properties had corrected all deficiencies found on inspection.

12 Properties had partially corrected deficiences found on inspections.

At the request of our Insurance Committee, the Financial Secretary of the Diocese is endeavoring to see that all recommendations are carried out, except at those Missions which have subsequently become Parishes.

Boiler and Pressure Vessel Insurance

It is our established policy to insure all pressure vessels which are required to be inspected under State Law. A change in Pennsylvania State Law became effective in August, 1957, extending the requirement of inspection to additional classes of objects. The law now requires inspection and certification of all boilers, all fired water heaters, and all unfired pressure vessels.

It therefore became necessary for our Insurance Committee to arrange complete re-inspection of all properties in which the Diocese has a financial interest, to determine additional objects requiring inspection under the new law. This re-inspection was made by the Maryland Casualty Company and our policy was amended to include them.

The policy is written covering the Diocese of Pennsylvania and the Church Foundation as their interests may appear. Premiums for the specific objects are charged to the properties at which they are located. Periodic inspections of each object are made by the insurance company as a result of its inclusion in the insurance; and a report of non-standard conditions, together with recommendations, is filed at Harrisburg and with us. These reports are accepted by the State as complying with the mandatory inspection requirements. We are expected to arrange compliance with the recommendations within a reasonable time.

There has in the past been some difficulty in securing compliance by certain Missions with the recommendations. But it is hoped that we can hereafter impress upon all Missions the fact that these recommendations have the force of State requirements in the interest of public safety.

Commercial Properties Owned by Churches

Occasionally a Parish or Mission for which the Church Foundation is responsible, purchases a commercial property, or converts a property which it holds for commercial use. The incentive for such actions is obviously financial. But such ownership creates problems which cannot always be foreseen by the Church and which require action outside of our usual procedure.

By the time we hear of such a condition, the lease has already been executed. It may provide that the tenant will furnish Fire Insurance on the building but not specify the amount. It is unlikely to provide that pressure vessels required to be inspected will be insured by the tenant or that the tenant will comply with recommendations for electrical improvements submitted by the Middle Department Association of Fire Underwriters, or that the tenant will carry adequate Public Liability and Property Damage Insurance.

The Church Foundation is therefore faced in these instances with hazards beyond those presented by Church, Parish House and Rectory occupancy. Negotiations are undertaken to secure the co-operation of the tenant in furnishing the insurance which we believe is necessary. But as there is no method of compelling a tenant to do so after we have executed a lease, it has been necessary in certain cases for the Diocese to provide insurance at its own expense.

During the past year we have been relieved of responsibility for certain commercial properties formerly owned by the Church of the Redemption at 56th and Market Streets. We have taken steps to see that insurance is properly arranged on commercial properties owned by St. Bartholomew's Mission at 25th Street and Lehigh Avenue.

Mission authorities should be encouraged to see that the prospective financial gain through renting properties for commercial occupancy is reduced by charges for necessary insurance unless the lease compels the tenant to provide this insurance and to comply with safety recommendations.

INVESTMENT

Management

Capital funds placed in our charge are under the direction of a very competent Investment Committee. All purchases and sales of securities are authorized by this Committee and have the benefit of constant investment supervision.

The Church Foundation also has the benefit of complete banking facilities through the Provident Tradesmen's Bank and Trust Company who act as Fiscal Agent. All records are kept of all our funds by the bank. Statements are prepared and mailed at regular periods with income distribution checks. A reasonable administration fee is charged against the income of our various funds.

Investment Policy

Our Investment Committee has continued its policy to obtain the best income return of our participating funds consistant with sound investment practice. This has borne fruit during the past year by taking advantage of high interest rates when available on good quality senior obligations.

A reserve buying power has been maintained through maturing obligations, which are carefully scheduled over the next five years.

It has been our policy to accept U. S. Savings Series G 2½% bonds at their par value from new funds for investment in our Consolidated Funds. Our holdings of these bonds have been redeemed on account of more attractive interest rates being obtainable in other government obligations.

We have also written off all premiums on bonds purchased over par in the Consolidated Fund by charging the amount against our Amortization Fund Reserve.

Expendable funds such as Building Funds have been temporarily invested in short term obligations including U. S. Treasury bills. Federal Home Loan bonds and Federal Intermediate Credit Bank bonds.

CONSOLIDATED FUND

The Consolidated Fund was established in 1943 when the original units were priced at $10. each and they have never been worth less than this amount. The earnings per unit for distribution have increased each year since that time, which has kept the income yield attractive for purchasers of new units.

Each unit of the Consolidated Fund has a participation in a portfolio of widely diversified securities in various industries, consisting of bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks. An itemized list of these securities giving cost and market values is shown on succeeding pages.

There were 160 participating funds in the Consolidated Fund as of December 31, 1957. These funds held a total of 315,887 units representing an investment of $3,679,849.87 or an average cost of $11.65 per unit for the total number of units outstanding.

The same units had a market value of $4,867,818. figured at the appraised value of $15.41 per unit on December 5, 1957.

During the year 1957 units were purchased at the following prices.

March 5, 1957	$16.06
June 5, 1957	16.38
September 5, 1957	15.72
December 5, 1957	15.41

Income distributions during the year 1957 amounted to 70.5 cents per unit, the highest yet attained. On the basis of the last unit value of $15.41 per unit the indicated rate of return would be 4.58%. However, on the basis of the average cost of all units of $11.65 per unit, the rate of return was 6%, while the purchasers of the original units at $10.00 each received a return of 7%.

The fifteen year record of the Consolidated Fund follows, showing growth, unit values and unit earnings since its inception in 1943. A chart is shown on the next page.

The Consolidated Legal Fund was established in 1953 when the original units were priced at $10. each. It is primarily a medium for investment of trust funds which are restricted to Legal Investments. This Fund is limited by statute to one third of its market value in approved common stocks and therefore less subject to wide fluctuations. The Consolidated Legal Fund may be used advantageously by a fund whose primary purpose is conservative investment.

There were 14 participating funds in the Consolidated Legal Fund as of December 31, 1957. These funds held a total of 7,119 units representing an investment of $75,990.60, or an average cost of $10.67 per unit.

During the year 1957 units were purchased at the following prices:

March 5, 1957	$10.78
June 5, 1957	10.79
September 5, 1957	10.40
December 5, 1957	10.33

Income distributions during the year 1957 amounted to 44.14 cents per unit before administration charges of 7% of income. On the basis of the last unit value of $10.33 per unit the indicated rate of return would be 4.27%.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION REPORT TO THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION MAY 5, 1958

Bishop Hart and fellow Delegates:

The Annual report of The Church Foundation to the Diocesan Convention is submitted herewith. We hope that you will examine this report and keep it for future reference. Extra copies are available upon request.

We report with sorrow the death of Mr. Clarence M. Brown, our First Vice-President, on February 9th last. He rendered most valuable service as Chairman of our Investment Committee.

We welcome two new members to fill vacancies on our Board, namely, Mr. Harold Kellogg, who has assumed the duties of Assistant Secretary and Treasurer and will serve on our Trust Committee. Mr. J. Weir Sargent who will serve on our Insurance Committee. Both are active Churchmen and will be of great assistance in their respective fields.

The Church Foundation as Designated Trustee of the Diocese to hold Properties and Funds, invests 29 Diocesan Permanent Funds for various purposes, having a total book value of $1,584,000 and manages various Buildings Funds.

During the past month we have received cash legacies totaling $246,000 for the Endowment Fund of the Episcopate from the Estates of Helen M. Zebley, Clarence M. Brown and Sophie duPont Ford. This is in addition to the investments reported on page 233, and makes a total book value of $678,000 for this Fund at the present time.

Title is held to 33 Diocesan Properties on which fire insurance with extended coverage and vandalism and malicious mischief is carried for a total amount of $3,745,000. Title is also held to 64 Parishes.

The Church Foundation also manages as Trustee 161 capital funds for various Parishes, Missions and Church Institutions having a total book value of about $3,000,000.

I would like to bring to your attention that we have recently obtained from our Fiscal Agent, the Provident Tradesmens Bank, a reduction in administration charge of 1% of income on all funds of $100,000 or over which are invested in our Consolidated Fund. This makes total administration charges on such funds 5% of income. This should be an incentive to our Parishes and Church Institutions to place their larger capital funds in trust with The Church Foundation.

If you will look at the table on page 244 you will see that the income distributions per unit of our Consolidated Fund have been increasing each year over a 14 year period. At the present unit value the indicated yield is about 4.5% which is an attractive income return.

Any inquiries or communications may be addressed to our office, 903 Provident Building, 1632 Chestnut Street.

I am very happy to call on the Reverend Charles W. Shreiner, Headmaster of the Church Farm School and a member of our Board, who has offered to speak to you about his experience with The Church Foundation.

E. OSBORNE COATES
Executive Vice-President

Bishop Hart and Members of Convention:

I am very happy to speak about the Church Foundation for two reasons. First, because I am a Director of the Foundation,—one of the three clerical members—and secondly, because the Endowment Funds of the Church Farm School are invested in its capital shares. I am well aware of the fact that I have little contribution to make to the meetings of the Foundation but I take second place to no one in my interest in its work.

When we first placed the Church Farm School funds with the Foundation, we purchased capital shares at a cost of little more than $10. As years have gone on, the cost has increased as the capital shares grew in value. We have paid as much as $16 per share. Every three months we receive our check for interest which has steadily and surely increased in its amount per share.

If you will read the list of the beneficiaries of the Foundation, —of those who have invested in its shares—you will find that the Church Farm School has the second largest sum committed to its care. We are building an Endowment for the School and in time, we believe that Endowment will exceed any other fund in the hands of the Church Foundation.

I would like to commend the Church Foundation to all Parish vestries and institutions in this Diocese as a safe and competent depository for the funds for which they are responsible.

I have every confidence in the judgment and ability of the men who are nominated by this Convention to carry on the work of the Foundation. We have been blessed with laymen to serve on the investment committee who have rare ability and business acumen. The past Chairman, Mr. Clarence M. Brown, was one of the outstanding business executives of this country. Mr. Brown had a great love for the Church. He spent himself in the service of the Church. He told me on a number of occasions of his love and admiration for Bishop Hart and how anxious he was to further any plans that Bishop Hart had for the extension of the Church in this Diocese.

Mr. Chairman, at this time, I would ask the Convention to rise while I offer a prayer for him —

"Remember thy servant, Clarence, O Lord, according to the favor which thou bearest unto thy people, and grant that, increasing in knowledge and love of thee, he may go from strength to strength, in the life of perfect service, in thy heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end." Amen.

CHARLES W. SHREINER

APPENDIX L

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

The cornerstone of the James and Martha B. Hay Memorial Chapter House was laid with appropriate ceremonies by Bishop Hart on the afternoon of 19th May, 1957. Steady progress has been made since that time and the beautiful building is now a reality. In addition to meeting certain needs of the Chapter and Diocese the Chapter House furnishes for the congregation of St. Mary's Chapel in the Cathedral Foundation the Parish House facilities that constantly growing group has needed for so long. The Dedication of the Chapter House will be held early in the coming month of June. Everyone is cordially invited and urged to attend this important event in the life of the Cathedral of the Diocese.

The Convention will be interested to know that the Chapter House approximate cost was in excess of $250,000.00 and that its endowment fund will probably exceed $96,000.00

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM N. LANIGAN,
Secretary-Registrar.

APPENDIX M

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RECTOR'S SALARIES AND PENSIONS

It is with a distinct sense of pride that I make my final report for the Commission on Rector's Salaries and Pensions, after being a member thereof for thirty years and for most of the time the chairman. I state this particularly because I am confident no one knows better the splendid service performed through the years by the members of this Commission in conducting personal interviews with Rectors and Vestries as to their need for help from the Sustenation Fund, for effort to secure full cooperation from the Aided Parishes and in maintaining a helpful and sympathetic course with all who sought help.

Over forty Parishes have at one time or another sought and obtained aid in order that Rectors might receive full canonical salaries. Only two Parishes were denied grants in my time as a member; in one instance due to unwillingness to cooperate and fulfill their part of the contract, and in the other case real need did not appear in the record.

This year there are only two aided Parishes on the list of recipients from the Sustenation Fund. More and more the Commission is endeavoring to have Parishes in need of larger grants to assume the temporary status of Diocesan Missions. All but three Parishes have completely met their assessment for the past year for the Sustenation Fund.

We do have a real problem, however, in the matter of a few Vestries failure to pay their Rectors' Pension premiums. In these several instances, the amount is so far in arrears that, had it not been paid out of the Sustenation Fund, Rectors' widows would have suffered in the matter of the thousand dollar allotment at these times. I would that we could impress upon every Vestry the absolute need of paying their Rector's Pension premiums with the same regularity as the salary.

General Convention will be asked this year to accept the report of the Church Pension Fund which contains a plan to increase by 20% the Pensions for Clergy, Widows and Dependent Children.

This is urged because of the high cost of living. The 3% added three years ago to the Pension premium will be retained, so that the pension premium will be 15% of salary if General Convention ratifies the report.

In view of the fact that so few applications to the Sustenation Fund have been made this year, your Commission would ask the Convention to further reduce the Assessment for 1959 by a thousand dollars, which amount, $5000.00 would be ample to take care of the grants and unpaid pension premiums.

Resolved, That the Commission on Rector's Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess for the Sustenation Fund for the year 1959, the sum of $5000.00.

JAMES M. NIBLO

Chairman

APPENDIX N

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

I have the privilege of reporting for the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Committee recommends to the Convention the adoption of two resolutions. Both of them relate to the changing of the official name of The City Mission. The present name is "The Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission." The Council believes that this name does not fully suggest the work being performed by The City Mission, and it therefore desires to change its name to "Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania."

The City Mission is incorporated under the non-profit corporation law of Pennsylvania. In order to accomplish a change of its name it must amend its charter. To amend its charter it must go into court for approval. To obtain court approval it may be necessary to show that this Convention approves this change of name. Accordingly our Committee recommends to this Convention that it adopt the following resolution:

"RESOLVED that this Convention approves an amendment to the charter of 'The Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission', changing the name of the corporation to 'Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.' "

In the event the court approves the ammendment and the appropriate decree is entered, our Committee on Constitution and Canons recommends that the appropriate Canon of the Diocese be amended to conform to the new name. At the same time we believe it advisable to make the Canon somewhat more flexible as to the size of the Board of Council which will administer The City Mission. Accordingly we recommend to this Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

"RESOLVED that the Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended by the elimination of Section II, sub-paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4 of Canon XVIII and by substituting the following:

"Section II, Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

1. This Convention hereby formally recognizes the corporation known as Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania as an established agency of the Diocese, and herewith provides for a closer relation between it and this body. The Bishop and Standing Committee shall annually nominate at least nine Clergymen and at least ten Lay Persons, and as many more of each as the By-Laws of the said Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania shall, from time to time provide, residents of this Diocese, to serve on the Board of Council of said corporation; which nominations shall be communicated by the Secretary of the Convention to the Board of Council Members of the said Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for election in accordance with the charter of the said corporation.

2. The Convention commits to said Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the religious ministration to inmates of penal institutions and patients and residents of hospitals and other institutions within the limits of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the over-sight of the charitable enterprises developed by said corporation, and the administration of such other work as may from time to time be referred to it by this convention.

3. Copies of the charter and By-Laws of the said Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, together with such amendments as may from time to time be made thereto, shall be filed with the Registrar of the Diocese. The Board of Council of said corporation shall annually submit a written or printed report of its work, together with a financial statement, to the Diocesan Convention.

4. Every Rector and Minister-in-Charge of a Congregation in the Diocese shall annually, in some way, present the cause of Episcopal Community Services to his people, and bespeak their support of its work."

It is further resolved that the foregoing resolution will become effective, if, as and when the charter of The Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission is amended changing the name of the corporation to 'Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.' "

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT L. TRESCHER, Chairman

DIOCESAN LIBRARY REPORT

Ten church magazines were subscribed to, and placed on the rack in room 11. Seventy-four books were purchased. These were chosen by the members of the Board of Control from book reviews in magazines and lists sent them by the Librarian, and from their own literary resources. Titles of new books were listed regularly in the Diocesan Church News. The list of new books purchased during the year was sent to all the clergy and laymen in charge of parishes, Perpetual Deacons, students and others using the Library, as well as Woman's Auxiliary Committee Chairmen.

In order to promote the use of the books among lay people, as well as the clergy, a letter was sent to all clergy asking them to promote the idea of their lay people using the Library, through their parish bulletin or whatever medium they had to do so. It was also sent to the Woman's Auxiliary Committee Chairmen, who announced it to the delegates at their meetings. Many more lay people have been using tthe Library, and there have been as many as a hundred books out at one time.

Contributions of $1.00 a year make anyone a sustaining member. All books must be checked in and out at the Information Window, or with the Librarian, room 37, where the catalogue is located.

Respectfully submitted,
THE REV. WALTER M. HAUSHALTER, LLD.,
Chairman of the Board of Control.

APPENDIX R

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION FOR COLLEGE WORK

Since my last report one layman of the Diocese who made an outstanding contribution to the Church's college work in this generation departed this life. Mr. William DuBarry, Vice President of the University of Pennsylvania, was a member of the Episcopal Committee at the University for forty-three years. He was, moreover, instrumental in founding with Dr. Thomas B. Gates, one time President of the University, The Church Society for College Work in 1935. As a vestryman of Holy Trinity Parish he took a keen interest in the outstanding young people's work of this center-city church. He had the vision to see Holy Trinity as a center for Christian work with young adults and students in the downtown area, and brought the Rev. Edward Pollanick here to carry it out. Recently Mr. Pollanick resigned to become rector of All Saints, Rhawnhurst, after having built up this work to its present size. The Rev. Ralph Harper comes now to take over this important ministry.

Two other laymen deserve special recognition in this report. Mr. Howard Kellogg retired from the presidency of this Corporation at the last Convention. His keen interest and thoughtful guidance of our affairs for three years are deeply appreciated. Owing to his fine work in our Church he has been elected chairman of the Metropolitan Strategy Commission of the six Churches cooperating in college work on certain campuses in the Philadelphia area. Mr. Ronald McCarthy, Bursar of The Divinity School and Treasurer of the Diocesan Commission, has a record second only to Mr. DuBarry in years of service on the Episcopal Committee at the University of Pennsylvania. His faithful stewardship has strengthened the Church's work in both these fields.

Several conferences brought together Churchmen from around the Diocese from our educational institutions for common worship, fellowship, and instruction. In March '57 Dr. Robert McNair led a group of faculty at the Radnor Conference Center on discussion of the theme, "Myths Modern Man Lives By." These Sunday conferences have stimulated faculty to relate their faith more closely to their teaching. But longer conferences are needed. An Institute of Theology is held annually for a week in June at Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, and several of our faculty have benefited from that experience.

A Lenten weekend retreat was held for students at the Conference Center in March '57, led by Rev. Theron Vallee, Vicar of St. Elisabeth's. Few students undertake such spiritual discipline, but those that did were led to new understanding of the deep things of God.

In August the first National Canterbury Conference exclusively for Episcopal students, faculty, and chaplains, was held at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee. Over four hundred Churchmen convened from all parts of the United States to pray and study together for a week under the leadership of Bishop Bayne of Olympia and Dr. A. T. Mollegen of Virginia Theological Seminary. The President of the University of Pennsylvania Canterbury Club attended with the Chaplain. This will now become an annual conference, sponsored by the National Council's Division of College Work.

In November we had in our Diocese our most successful student conference in recent years. Over sixty students came to Trinity Church, Swarthmore, for an afternoon of discussion of the theme, "Conviction or Conformity on Campus," led by the Rev. William Eddy, Episcopal Chaplain at Princeton University. A special treat was a lecture given by Dr. Paul Tillich, noted theologian, at Swarthmore College immediately afterwards for which some of our students stayed.

We are fortunate in having the Rev. Laurence Seyler, Assistant at St. Mary's, Ardmore, working with our students at Bryn Mawr and Haverford. Several went with him to the Provincial Conference held annually the first weekend in December in Frederick, Maryland. Our other part-time chaplains who take on student work in addition to parish duties also keep faithfully at the task of presenting the Gospel and the claims of Christ to the leaders of tomorrow. Anglican students from overseas are coming increasingly to our shores for advanced study, and are a special responsibility of our parishes here near the campuses of our Diocese.

The Executive Secretary spends the larger amount of his time as Episcopal Chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania. The Commission for College Work is now working under the stimulus of the present President, The Rev. Edward G. Harris, toward acquiring a priest full time as Diocesan Director of College Work. It is our devout hope that the necessary financial support will be voted by Diocesan and National Conventions so that full time leadership in this critical field of the Church's work will be available in 1959.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES K. C. LAWRENCE
Executive Secretary for the Commission.

APPENDIX S

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The Committee held two meetings in preparation for its major effort which was the promotion of a day long Conference on Christian Vocations on December 27th, 1957.

This is the third such Conference to be held since this Committee took office and we accepted the kind invitation of The Very Rev. Frank Gifford, D.D., Dean of The Philadelphia Divinity School to hold it at that place.

What we attempt to do in this Conference is to present the various ways in which it is possible for a young man or woman to serve God in and through His Church.

Two laymen and two Clergymen shared the presentation this year. Dean Gifford spoke on "The Parish Ministry" while Mr. Marshall Lamason, Jr. gave a stirring address on "The Christian in Society."

After luncheon The Reverend Sydney Atkinson, Assistant Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, one of our active Religious Orders for men, gave a moving account of the work of a Religious in terms of religious activity and the expression of the activity in terms of hospital and educational and social work carried on by the Order in Liberia, West Africa.

Of special interest to the young people was the presence of Festus Halay, a native of Liberia and graduate of the Holy Cross School in Liberia, now in this country doing pre-medical work. Mr. Halay will return, after taking his medical degree, to work among his own people. His informal speech of life in this country as seen by a person unacquainted with our ways of life fascinated all who heard him.

The Conference speaker last heard from was Howard Kellogg, Esquire who spoke on the subject "Can the Church Use Me." Mr. Kellogg showed that any person who desires to use his talent for God can find a place to do so in the Church.

The day ended for the conferees with Choral Evening Prayer sung by the students of the Divinity School.

We have had comments from many of the participants expressing their thanks for this opportunity to learn more of the work of the Church in which they can find a life's vocation.

Your Chairman is grateful for the opportunity this experience of three years has afforded him as he extends his resignation to the Bishop. It is his hope that this very important work may be carried on and not allowed to fall into the desuetude in which he found it upon assuming office.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM J. ALBERTS, Chairman

APPENDIX T

REPORT ON THE CHURCH OF SOUTH INDIA WITH RECOMMENDED RESOLUTION TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION

The special committee of the 1957 Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania to study proposed relations between the Protestant Episcopal Church and the Church of South India presents the following report and resolution your committee has met on many occasions between October and this date and has also held informal meetings for discussion:

Your committee commends the Church of South India in its approach toward church unity, especially in its acceptance of the historic episcopate; recognizes its episcopally ordained ministry; and presents the following resolution for adoption by this Convention:

WHEREAS, THE JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS has carefully studied the Church of South India with the assistance of the delegation sent to South India and of a special theological advisory committee; and

WHEREAS, the JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS is presenting a unanimous report to General Convention in October 1958; and

WHEREAS, the JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS in its Report clearly states that it does not now recommend full intercommunion with the Church of South India, and that its resolutions are necessarily interim measures;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocese of Pennsylvania at this Convention in May 1958 expresses its approval of the REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS ON THE CHURCH OF SOUTH INDIA; and also expresses its desire to enter into the fullest possible fellowship with the Church of South India consistent with our Anglican principles and the Faith and Order of the Universal Church as received and practiced in our Communion.

RELEVANT INFORMATION

I. The Church of South India came into existence in September 1947, when four dioceses of the Anglican Communion in India entered into union with the members of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregationalist bodies in that area. It has an historic episcopate of 14 bishops and over 1,000,000 members.

II. Reason for Study: Because the whole Anglican Communion is involved, our General Convention of 1955 requested the entire Church to study the Church of South India, the uniqueness of which lies in the fact that it is the first Church in which episcopal and non-episcopal bodies have been united.

III. The Joint Commission on Ecumenical Relations is a continuing Commission of General Convention appointed to study all approaches to unity made by our Church toward other Christian Churches and by other Christian Churches toward us.

IV. Summary of final REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS ON THE CHURCH OF SOUTH INDIA:

a. Basic recognition in first recommended resolution: . . . "we acknowledge the bishops, presbyters and deacons consecrated or ordained in the Church of South India at or after the inauguration of that Church as true bishops, priests and deacons in the Church of God."

b. Eight resolutions follow which define and regulate our relationship with CSI in the establishment of limited intercommunion.

c. The Report states: "The favorable action taken by several Anglican Churches and similarly proposed in this report does not necessarily imply that the way taken to union by the CSI establishes a proper pattern for the union of episcopal and non-episcopal traditions."

NOTE: A limited number of copies of the final REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS ON THE CHURCH OF SOUTH INDIA (28 pages) are available in the Diocesan office.

THE CHINESE CHURCH AND CENTER

There is a fine bit of missionary work being done in our City for the Chinese people who live in our midst. It is a united effort on the part of several Protestant Churches, of which ours is one. Bishop Hart has appointed three of us to serve as an Episcopal Committee to help support this work, and there are three also who serve on the Board of Directors of the Chinese Church and Center.

The work is progressing and gives promise of further development. The Chinese congregation is growing and the children in the Sunday School now number about 75. The church services are partly in the Chinese language and partly in English. There are many mid-week activities for the young in this Center. The Committee has prepared a leaflet about this work for distribution to the delegates to Convention.

Our Church is asked by the Directors to raise $3,000.00 a year towards the expenses of this Chinese Church and Center. This is raised by voluntary contribution from individuals and church organizations. We solicit your generous help in this splendid bit of missionary work, and invite you to visit the Church and Center and see what goes on there.

APPENDIX V

REPORT OF THE DIVISION OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

A committee of the Division of Health and Welfare Services of the Department of Christian Social Relations has held several meetings this past year to study the problem of the aging and the relation of the Diocese thereto, in accordance with the Resolution adopted by the Diocesan Convention of 1957 and referred to this Department. The Resolution follows:

WHEREAS, Churchmen are deeply concerned over the needs of infirm and chronically ill persons, and WHEREAS there is a quickening of interest in those living in commercial convalescent and nursing homes, be it

RESOLVED, that this Convention request the Department of Christian Social Relations to make recommendations to the members of this Diocese concerning how they might more effectively meet the needs of infirm and chronically ill persons.

The General Convention also has this area of need for Christian Service under study. The Convention of 1955 has referred it to the National Council which is to make a report to the forthcoming General Convention later this year. A brief quotation from a meeting held at Seabury House in March, bearing upon this problem in its nation-wide aspects, sheds some light upon our problem. It follows:

"Our Country has gained in the last half century through the dramatic increase in the average length of life. This creates an urgent need for research, study and reappraisal of the program of the Church. No longer can the Church fulfill its social mission to the aged by the provisions of shelter alone. Its task now is to lead society to a greater acceptance of the aging and recognition of their value, and to develop a program which will further their spiritual growth and enable them to share fully in the life of the Church.

"This new older generation can contribute much to the strength of the Church through its experience, judgment, and devotion. At the same time it presents a challenge to develop (theological) understanding and a ministry to meet its special social and spiritual needs.

"As a step towards these ends a consultation was held at Seabury House, March 25-27, 1958, to consider specifically the development of a philosophy and a theology towards aging, and of programs and activities with reference to it."

Your Department has reached some very definite conclusions on this complicated and difficult problem which we believe is also a challenge to our sympathetic and forward looking action:

1. The following are the present facilities in the Diocese in Church Related Homes for the Aged:
   - A. Primarily for well people:
     1. House of Rest caring for 42 persons
     2. Christ Church Hospital " " 76 "
     3. Leamy Home " " 57 "
     4. St. Anna's Home " " 20 "
     5. Keane Home " " 7 "
     6. "Druim Moir" " " 12 "
   - B. For ill and handicapped people
     1. All Saints Hospital Treatment and Rehabilitation Center for Chronic Diseases (not including the care of tuberculosis) caring for 27 persons.
     2. James C. Smith Home, Oakburne, near West Chester, caring for 21 persons.
     3. Harrison Home (Episcopal Hospital), caring for 60 persons, however at present the intake is closed.
2. There are three categories of Homes for Aged according to the State's strict regulations administered through the Department of Welfare:
   - A. Boarding Homes—this includes many operated on a commercial, business basis and Church affiliated homes (a service of the Church), also some non-sectarian homes.
   - B. Convalescent Homes
   - C. Nursing Homes
3. There is a changing social background showing:
   - A. A decreasing demand for services from older people, due partly to available income through Social Security and Old Age Assistance.
   - B. A greatly increasing demand from ill and handicapped people.
   - C. An increasing number of older people, for instance the Jewish Home in New York had 500 applicants in 1956 with an average age of 75 years.

This means there is a great shift in the demand for care from the aged who are well to those who are infirm and ill.

4. The parish clergy could be of service through:
   - A. Listing, studying and serving commercial Nursing Homes. Groups of clergy in contiguous areas, e.g. West Philadelphia and Germantown, would be helpful in this effort.

B. Increasing the ministry to older, lonely and needy, inactive people e.g. Golden Age Clubs.

C. Discovering foster homes for older people (consult Family Counselling Service of City Mission, Miss Milo Upjohn).

D. Encouraging volunteer friendly visitors who have had training (e.g. those working with Mrs. Olmes).

5. There is need to suggest and supply activities and where possible rehabilitation. Older people need to be helped to useful and interesting living, a "hopeful" future, and a richer life.

6. Finally, we strongly recommend a bold and statesmanlike forward look to a far seeing and far reaching program—this will take time and money. (There is an excellent brochure of the New York Jewish Home for the Aged the annual budget of which shows that 900 persons were cared for in 1956 for $2,650.00 each.) We suggest a five group plan whereby we may have a loving, compassionate and comprehensive program for all our older citizens:

A. Homes for well older people. The Church affiliated homes are mostly in this category as they serve 210 of the 265 cared for.

B. Service to aging in their own homes. This would be an outpatient service staffed by the clergy plus volunteers.

C. Homes for disabled, e.g. arthritis, paralysis, broken bones, cancer. These should provide rehabilitative services. All Saints Hospital for Tuberculosis, in 1885, did a pioneering service in this area.

D. Nursing care for bed fast patients. At present this is a bottleneck.

E. Terminal care which would provide a sense of security and peace of mind under all conditions. (Mental illness is a specialized field beyond our ability or resources.)

7. What Can We Do Now?

A. We suggest a closer communication and cooperation between the present Church Affiliated Homes (6) and other Church Affiliated Facilities (3).

B. Increase infirmary facilities in, or available to, our present homes. (We would make crystal clear the Department of Christian Social Relations has no desire or intention to interfere with the management of the homes but has a willingness to confer and help gather information as to needs.)

C. Assist parish clergy in this very difficult part of their pastoral ministry.

8. The Department of Christian Social Relations will be glad to continue its study and its service to all those in the Church working in this rich field of service, in cooperation with all others in the community: governmental agencies, commercial nursing homes and other private homes. Much of this started with the Church; we are deeply concerned that the Church shall continue and perhaps lead in this Christ-like service.

APPENDIX W

GREATER PHILADELPHIA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

It is difficult for some of us to participate in ecumenical relations. As Anglicans our own life in Christ is full, rich, and satisfying. We may well see no need to reach out into the life of other Christian bodies. Furthermore, if we do reach out, if we do extend ourselves, we encounter some disturbing problems. Generally Roman Catholic Christians do not accept us. We fare better with Eastern Catholics with whom we can have some meaningful community. When we turn to Protestant Christians we discover that we are often not understood, and that we are looked upon as something of a curiosity in the Christian world. We are accepted, treated with deference, but not understood as we would like to be understood. Little things in our relationship with Protestant Christians bother us. We clergy swallow hard when we are introduced as "Reverend Entwhistle who belongs to the Protestant Episcopal denomination." When we meet with our Protestant brothers, even though it be a feast day, we must adhere to a Lenten discipline and keep our smoking materials safely hidden in our pockets. More important things bother us too. In our conversations with our Protestant brothers we see more clearly the depth, wisdom, and religious honesty of our own Anglican heritage. We go away thanking God we are Anglicans and wondering why anyone in his right mind chooses to be anything else. We often feel, and feel deeply, that our Church is the only Church truly equipped both religiously and culturally to meet the real and desperate need of mankind.

Nonetheless, though it be difficult for some of us to participate in ecumenical relations we know deep in our hearts that we must. The Holy Catholic Church is divided and we share the guilt of all Christendom. We cannot stand aloof from the problems of division. Bishop Brent knew this, and so did Archbishop Temple, and they worked mightily to restore understanding and cooperation. At the Bishop's Conference at Buck Hill a couple of weeks ago we saw our Presiding Bishop and the Bishop of Washington hard at work with members of the World Council of Churches. But these summit meetings are not for most of us. We have to work, whether we like it or not, at a local community level. And after all, as a pamphlet received last week by all our clergy states, "Wherever we start in Ecumenical relations, whether with top level theologians in conference in Geneva, or board meetings where representatives pass resolutions, we always end up with the parish and the community."

There are undoubtedly many things we can do to strengthen our relationship with Roman Catholic Christians, Eastern and Orthodox Christians, and Protestant Christians. One thing some of us are doing is working with Protestant Christians through the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches. At this moment 69 parishes in the Diocese of Pennsylvania are members of the Council of Churches. 175 lay people are delegates to the Council. 7 priests and lay people are members of the Board. Our Church contributed slightly over $18,000 to the work of the Council in 1957. This is what we are doing right now.

What do we get out of it? Of what use is the Council to us? 133 priests and Church workers are enrolled in Blue Cross and Blue Shield through the Council of Churches. 24 of our priests have appeared in radio and television programs sponsored by the Council. Furthermore, the Council has given us 26 weeks of free time for our televised "Mission at Mid Century" series. The Board of Research and Planning of the Council has been of invaluable aid in the selection of sites for proposed Diocesan missions and for the rebuilding of Churches already established. Some of us have used the various community services offered by the Council.

But it is not so important what the Council can do for us as what we can do for the Council. The Council of Churches needs us. It needs our witness. It needs the contribution only we can make. If we fail to support and to cooperate with the Council of Churches it is only one great opportunity for Ecumenical relations we shall have missed. Obviously it is not going to hurt us to cooperate. Our integrity will not be sacrificed. We are not going to give up the historic episcopate because some of the member Churches do not understand apostolic succession. We are not going to give up our sacramental life because some of the member Churches do not have such a life. Indeed it is the affirmed policy of the Council that the member Churches cooperate only at the point where cooperation is possible. We have much to give to the Council, particularly our own Anglican witness. Those of us who are Board members hope that more parishes will support the Council, more clergy will become interested in the Council, more lay people will participate in the Council's life.
